Muslim-Jewish Encounters Ronald L. Nettler, 2014-01-02 First Published in 1998 This book brings together contributions which examine various Islamic and selected Jewish writings of this kind analysing their ideas methods sources and meanings relating them to the new historical and political situations as well as to ancient and medieval writings for comparative purposes The texts discussed either elaborate attitudes towards the other within the two traditions or address themes that are part of their common heritage

The Islamic Moses Mustafa Akyol, 2024-09-10 A theological and historical exploration of the connection between Islam and Judaism through the single most mentioned character in the Quran Moses There is one human mentioned in the Quran more than any other Moses Why is it that the Jewish prophet dominates the Islamic scripture Because he is the role model for Muhammad Islam s own prophet Because Islam just like Christianity is deeply intertwined with Judaism although surprisingly little attention has been given to this fascinating connection between the two religions Author and journalist Mustafa Akyol takes readers on a theological and historical walk through that much neglected side of the Abrahamic triangle the Judeo Islamic tradition Using Moses presence in the Quran as a jumping off point Akyol explores the first historical encounter between Muslims and Jews the creative symbiosis and mutual enrichment that occurred between the two belief systems in medieval times and the modern emergence development and perception of the two religions At a time of bitter conflict in the Middle East The Islamic Moses dives into the older deeper and often unexpectedly brighter story of Jews and Muslims Readers of any background will be surprised by the common historical and theological ground that exists between the two religions and will come away with a better understanding of both

Narratives about Jews among Muslims in Norway Vibeke Moe Bjørnbekk, 2024-06-17 What is the nature of Muslim Jewish relations in Europe today Based on qualitative interview data this book explores narratives about Jews among Muslims in Norway Drawing on culturally embedded narratives as well as personal experiences interviewees reflect on the relationship between Jews and Muslims The interreligious exchange between Islam and Judaism is as old as Islam Today the Arab Israeli conflict has become an important frame of reference in the public discourse on Muslim Jewish relations The narratives presented in this book delineate shifting community boundaries and identifications that transcend dichotomised notions of Muslims versus Jews The analysis shows how Jewish history in Europe and the history of modern antisemitism serve as interpretative keys in the narratives used for explaining the situation of the Muslim minority today Furthermore the book demonstrates how interviewees perceptions of society s attitudes toward Muslim and Jewish experiences also strongly influence their perceptions of Muslim Jewish relations
