Culture, Indigenous Knowledge and Development in Africa Mawere, Munyaradzi, 2014-03-16 The continent of Africa is richly endowed with diverse cultures a body of indigenous knowledge and technologies These bodies of knowledge and technologies that are indeed embodied in the diverse African cultures are as old as humankind From time immemorial they have been used to solve socio economic political health and environmental problems and to respond to the development needs of Africans Yet with the advent of colonialism and Western scientism these African cultures knowledges and technologies have been despised and relegated to the periphery to the detriment of the self reliant development of Africans It is out of this observation and realisation that this book was born The book is an exploration of the practical problems resulting from Africa s encounter with Euro colonialism a reflection of the nexus between indigenous knowledge culture and development and indeed a call for the revival and reinstitution of indigenous knowledge not as a challenge to Western science but a complementary form of knowledge necessary to steer and promote sustainable development in Africa and beyond This is a valuable book for policy makers institutional planners practitioners and students of social anthropology education political and social ecology and development African and heritage studies

Indigenous Knowledge and Learning in Asia/Pacific and Africa D. Kapoor, E. Shizha, 2010-09-27 This collection makes a unique contribution towards the amplification of indigenous knowledge and learning by adopting an inter trans disciplinary approach to the subject that considers a variety of spaces of engagement around knowledge in Asia and Africa

Culture, Indigenous Knowledge and Development in Africa Munyaradzi Mawere, 2024-11-29 The continent of Africa is richly endowed with diverse cultures a body of indigenous knowledge and technologies These bodies of knowledge and technologies that are indeed embodied in the diverse African cultures are as old as humankind From time immemorial they have been used to solve socio economic political health and environmental problems and to respond to the development needs of Africans Yet with the advent of colonialism and Western scientism these African cultures knowledges and technologies have been despised and relegated to the periphery to the detriment of the self reliant development of Africans It is out of this observation and realisation that this book was born The book is an exploration of the practical problems resulting from Africa s encounter with Euro colonialism a reflection of the nexus between indigenous knowledge culture and development and indeed a call for the revival and reinstitution of indigenous knowledge not as a challenge to Western science but a complementary form of knowledge necessary to steer and promote sustainable development in Africa and beyond This is a valuable book for policy makers institutional planners practitioners and students of social anthropology education political and social ecology and development African and heritage studies

Development Naivety and Emergent Insecurities in a Monopolised World Mawere, Munyaradzi, 2018-09-17 It is common knowledge that development without security is like a runaway horse Yet development in Africa has been plagued by insecurities since the extractive periods of slave trade and colonialism In spite of political independence and the euphoria of sovereignty as states Africa has failed to address insecurity which continues to loom large and to threaten aspirations towards truly inclusive and sustainable development A consequence has been Africa's development naivety vis vis the monopolisation of development by the predatory elite actors of the global North and their local facilitators To salvage the continent from such predation and the insecurities engendered requires novel and innovative imagination and praxis This book draws from both the haunted landscapes and bitter memories of past exploitations and from the feeding of the insatiable North with African resources and humanity It brings together essays by a concerned generation of scholars driven by the urgent need for radical decolonisation of African development and its legacies of insecurities It is handy to students and practitioners in economics policy studies political science development studies global and African studies

Culture and Rural-Urban Revitalisation in South Africa Mziwoxolo Sirayi, Modimowabarwa Kanyane, Giulio Verdini, 2021-06-14 This book captures ground breaking attempts to utilise culture in territorial development and regeneration processes in the context of South Africa and our new normal brought by COVID 19 the fourth industrial revolution and climate change the world over The importance of culture in rural urban revitalisation has been underestimated in South Africa and the African continent at large Despite some cultural initiatives that are still at developmental stages in big cities such as Johannesburg eThekweni and Cape Town there is concern about the absence of sustainable policies and plans to support culture creativity and indigenous knowledge at national and municipal levels Showcasing alternative strategies for making culture central to development this book discusses opportunities to shift culture and indigenous knowledge from the peripheries and place them at the epicentre of sustainable development and the mainstream of cultural planning which can then be applied in the contexts of Africa and the Global South Governmental institutions research councils civil society organisations private sector and higher education institutions come together in a joint effort to explain the nexus between culture economic development rural urban linkages grassroots and technological innovations Culture and Rural Urban Revitalization in South Africa is an ideal read for those interested in rural and urban planning cultural policy indigenous knowledge and smart rural village model

Violence, Politics and Conflict Management in Africa Mawere, Munyaradzi, Marongwe, Ngonidzashe, 2016-09-01 This volume critically interrogates from different angles and dimensions the resilience of conflict and violence into 21st century Africa The demise of European colonial administration in Africa in the 1960s wielded fervent hope for enduring peace for the people of Africa Regrettably conflict alongside violence in all its dimensions physical religious political psychological and structural remain unabated and occupy central stage in contemporary Africa The resilience of conflict and violence on the continental scene invokes unsettling memories of the past while negatively influencing the present and future of crafting inclusive citizenship and statehood he book provides fresh insightful ethnographic and intellectual material for rethinking violence and conflict and for fostering long lasting peace and political justice on the continent and beyond With its penetrating focus on conflict and associated
