Human Past Scarre Edition 3:

Justice for People on the Move Gillian Brock, 2020-02-20 Offers a comprehensive framework that can assist in responding to new justice challenges for people on the move

Teaching Big History Richard B. Simon, Mojgan Behmand, Thomas Burke, 2015 Big History is a new field on a grand scale it tells the story of the universe over time through a diverse range of disciplines that spans cosmology physics chemistry astronomy geology evolutionary biology anthropology and archaeology thereby reconciling traditional human history with environmental geography and natural history Weaving the myriad threads of evidence based human knowledge into a master narrative that stretches from the beginning of the universe to the present the Big History framework helps students make sense of their studies in all disciplines by illuminating the structures that underlie the universe and the connections among them Teaching Big History is a powerful analytic and pedagogical resource and serves as a comprehensive guide for teaching Big History as well for sharing ideas about the subject and planning a curriculum around it Readers are also given helpful advice about the administrative and organizational challenges of instituting a general education program constructed around Big History The book includes teaching materials examples and detailed sample exercises This book is also an engaging first hand account of how a group of professors built an entire Big History general education curriculum for first year students demonstrating how this thoughtful integration of disciplines exemplifies liberal education at its best and illustrating how teaching and learning this incredible story can be transformative for professors and students alike

Societies Past and Present Thomas C. Burr, 2025-09-24 This global and comparative history examines the evolution of human societies over many millennia illuminating patterns within societies today It shows how the original human groups bands of hunter gatherers grew over time into larger and more complex societies through three major transformations settlement and domestication the development of complexity and inequality and industrial globalization The book describes how each of these major changes in economy and political structure created new types of societies villages chiefdoms and other complex societies agrarian states and empires and today s global social system It therefore shows how different types of societies came to co exist and interact on Earth The book compares societies along seven aspects their economies political systems cultural patterns inequalities family structures demographics and environmental patterns It shows that even societies that shared similar basic features still exhibited great variety The comparative framework presented here helps readers develop a conceptual vocabulary for understanding societies the larger social systems within which they exist and the major social changes that led to this continuing expansion

India: The Ancient Past Burjor Avari, 2016-07-01 India The Ancient Past provides a clear and systematic introduction to the cultural political economic social and geographical history of ancient India from the time of the pre Harappan culture nine thousand years ago up until the beginning of the second millennium of the Common Era The book engages with methodological and controversial issues by examining key themes such as the Indus Sarasvati civilization the Aryan controversy the development of Vedic and heterodox religions and the political economy and social life of ancient Indian kingdoms This fully revised and updated second edition includes Three new chapters examining the differences and commonalities between the north and south of India Extended discussion on contested issues such as the origins of the Aryans and the role of feudalism in ancient India New source excerpts to introduce students to the most significant works in the historiography of India and questions for discussion Study guides including a list of key issues suggested readings and a selection of internet sources for each chapter Specially designed maps to illustrate different time periods and geographical regions This richly illustrated guide provides a fascinating account of the early development of Indian culture and civilization that will appeal to all students of Indian history

Facing the Sea of Sand Barry Cunliffe, 2023-04-25 Northern Africa is dominated by the Sahara Desert stretching across the continent from the Atlantic Ocean to the Red Sea This book is about the people who lived around the edges of the Desert and the different ways in which they responded to its challenges establishing networks of communication across its expanse But the Sahara has not always been a desert From about 9000 BC the region began to enjoy a warm humid period allowing vegetation to flourish and wild animals to move in Humans soon followed practising pastoral economies but with the onset of harsher conditions once more around 3000 BC the desert reclaimed its own Since then fluctuations in climate have continued to affect the lives of people living around the desert fringes The communities occupying the North African Coast and in the Nile Valley have come under the influence of the states dominating the Near East and the Mediterranean but those living in in the Sahel to the south of the desert have developed their own distinctive cultures The book tells the story of the growing links between the two worlds showing that Africa played a crucial part in the development of the Old World before it was drawn into the story of the New World

Europe Between the Oceans Barry W. Cunliffe, 2008 Distinguished archaeologist Cunliffe views Europe not in terms of states and shifting political land boundaries but as a geographical niche particularly favored in facing many seas in this history that presents an engaging new understanding of Old Europe
