Job Order Cost Accounting Practice Case William K. Carter, 1999-04 Now students can perform the accounting cycle in a job order cost setting with this unique practice case Students thoroughly review double entry accounting as well as other cost accounting topics integrated into a single coherent whole The case is designed for maximum instructor flexibility Students can progress significantly in the case before reviewing more demanding topics in the classroom For instance instructors can have students begin by calculating predetermined overhead rates for the month or can postpone this step until near the end of the case For brevity this case completes an accounting cycle after one month of operation rather than the entire year Transactions of the first four days have already been journalized to provide clear examples Students practice the entire scope of cost accounting tasks from making numerous adjusting entries at month end to disposing of the under or over applied overhead amount and preparing pre closing trial balances The case is an ideal choice for use with minimal instructor supervision Process Cost Accounting Practice Case William K. Carter, 1999-04 Students perform virtually the entire accounting cycle in a process cost setting with this thorough practice case The case effectively integrates several of the most demanding cost accounting topics into a single coherent whole Students can complete considerable work in the case before more demanding topics are presented in the classroom After predetermined overhead rates the step method and spoilage are covered by the instructor then students can finish the case For brevity this case completes the accounting cycle after one month of operation Students handle all transactions from general journal entries to making numerous adjusting entries at month end and preparing the income statement for the month Previous editions have been extensively class tested to ensure an effective case that requires little instructor supervision Study Guide Cost Accounting, 11th Edition [by]
