Freedom Time Anthony Reed, 2014-12 In Freedom Time Anthony Reed reclaims the power of black experimental poetry and prose by arguing that if literature fundamentally serves the human need for freedom in expression then readers and critics must see it as something other than a reflection of the politics of social protest and identity formation Prior to the successful campaigns against Jim Crow segregation in the U S and colonization in the Caribbean literary politics seemed much more obviously interventionist As more African Americans and Afro Caribbean writers gained access to formal political power more writing emerged whose political concerns went beyond improving racial representation appealing for social recognition raising consciousness or commenting on the political disillusion and fragmentation of the post segregation and post colonial
