A Critical Companion to Wes Craven John Darowski, Fernando Gabriel Pagnoni Berns, 2023-08-08 In A Critical Companion to Wes Craven contributors use a variety of theoretical frameworks to analyze distinct areas of Craven's work including ecology, auteurism, philosophy, queer studies, and trauma. Authoring Hal Ashby Aaron Hunter, 2018-02-22 Casting fresh light on New Hollywood, one of American cinema's most fertile eras, Authoring Hal Ashby is the first sustained argument that rather than a period dominated by genius auteurs, New Hollywood was an era of intense collaboration producing films of multiple authorship. Centering its discussion on the films and filmmaking practice of director Hal Ashby, Harold and Maude, Shampoo, Being There, Hunter's work demonstrates how the auteur paradigm has served not only to diminish several key films and filmmakers of the era but also to underestimate and undervalue the key contributions to the era's films of cinematographers, editors, writers, and other creative crew members. Placing Ashby's films and career within the historical context of his era to show how he actively resisted the auteur label, the author demonstrates how this resistance led to Ashby's marginalization by film executives of his time and within subsequent film scholarship. Through rigorous analysis of several films, Hunter moves on to demonstrate Ashby's own signature authorial contributions to his films and provides thorough and convincing demonstrations of the authorial contributions made by several of Ashby's key collaborators. Building on emerging scholarship on multiple authorship, Authoring Hal Ashby lays out a creative new approach to understanding one of Hollywood cinema's most exciting eras and one of its most vital filmmakers.

Mosaic Space and Mosaic Auteurs Yun-hua Chen, 2016-12-19 Mosaic Space and Mosaic Auteurs constructs a model of mosaic which extends our focus beyond narrative strategy to approach the trend of diverse multi-strand films across genres, nations, and filmmaking contexts since the late 1980s. Different from investigation of this recurring global phenomenon from perspectives of spectator engagement narratology cognitive understanding and socio political messages proposed by film scholars the model of mosaic helps establish the intertwining relationship between narrative aesthetics transnational production and distribution modes and in the framework of contextualised geopolitical spaces As the transnational auteurs in question draw talents resources and subject matters from a wide range of geopolitical spaces along their border crossing journeys their films juxtapose diverse spatial configurations In fact mosaic is a spatial metaphor which puts emphasis on the visual image of spaces and links space narrative and authorship into a multidimensional model of spatial compilation It is a mosaic which gathers groups juxtaposes and re arranges spaces offering a reading of mosaic beyond an exclusive focus on narrative its nuances are examined in detail in different mosaics of Alejandro Gonz lez I rritu Atom Egoyan Hou Hsiao hsien and Michael Haneke

Authorship in Film Adaptation Jack Boozer, 2008-07-15 Authoring a film adaptation of a literary source not only requires a media conversion but also a transformation as a result of the differing dramatic demands of cinema The most critical central step in this transformation of a literary source to the screen is the writing of the screenplay The screenplay usually serves to recruit producers director and actors to attract capital investment and to give focus to the conception and production of the film project Often undergoing multiple revisions prior to production the screenplay represents the crucial decisions of writer and director that will determine how and to what end the film will imitate or depart from its original source Authorship in Film Adaptation is an accessible provocative text that opens up new areas of discussion on the central process of adaptation surrounding the screenplay and screenwriter director collaboration In contrast to narrow binary comparisons of literary source text and film the twelve essays in this collection also give attention to the underappreciated role of the screenplay and film pre production that can signal the primary intention for a film Divided into four parts this collection looks first at the role of Hollywood s activist producers and major auteurs such as Hitchcock and Kubrick as they worked with screenwriters to formulate their audio visual goals The second part offers case studies of Devil in a Blue Dress and The Sweet Hereafter for which the directors wrote their own adapted screenplays Considering the variety of writer director working relationships that are possible Part III focuses on adaptations that alter genre time and place and Part IV investigates adaptations that alter stories of romance sexuality and ethnicity
