Happiness Randy Alcorn,2024-06 Christians are supposed to be happy In fact we are supposed to radiate joy peace and contentment that is so unmistakable and so attractive that others are naturally drawn to us because they want what we have And yet in today s culture the vast majority of Christians are perceived as angry judgmental people who don t seem to derive any joy from life whatsoever So why aren t we happy Unfortunately many Christians are taught early on that God doesn t want us to be happy he wants us to be holy In fact many Christians are laboring under the false notion that God himself is not happy But nothing could be further from the truth God does want us to be happy The Bible is filled with verses that prove that ours is a happy joy filled God who not only loves celebrations but also desperately wants his children to be happy Why else would He go to the lengths He did to ensure our eternal happiness in His presence We know that we will experience unimaginable joy and happiness in Heaven but that doesn t mean we can t also experience joy and happiness here on earth In Happiness noted theologian Randy Alcorn dispels centuries of misconceptions about happiness and provides indisputable proof that God not only wants us to be happy He commands it The most definitive study on the subject of happiness to date this book is a paradigm shifting wake up call for the church and Christians everywhere

Analysis of Twelfth Night (ACT II, Scene IV) Nicolas Theisen,2017-07-25 Seminar paper from the year 2013 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 0 University of Cologne language English abstract Two key themes stand out in Act 2 Scene 4 of William Shakespeare s play Twelfth Night On one hand constancy of love plays a significant part and on the other hand gender deception In this scene Viola disguised as Cesario defends the love of women and defies Orsino s critic of women s inconsistent love compared to men s enduring passion Too well what love women to men may owe In faith they are as true of heart as we 2 4 103 104 Viola s appreciation of the woman s side and her continuous word plays demonstrate her intention to help Orsino uncovering her disguise and reciprocating her love The following dialogue provides an essential challenge for the interpretation and production of this scene One can either illustrate that Orsino actually reveals Violas deceit or lay emphasis on Orsino s simplicity and thus demonstrate his naivety Her hints commence when she says We men may say more swear more but indeed our shows are more than will 2 4 116 Here Shakespeare uses the phonological identity of we men and women to create an ambiguity of meaning The ambiguity peaks with her admission I am all the daughters of my father s house and all the brother too 2 4 118 119 indicating that Viola assumes her brother Sebastian died in the shipwreck Orsino seems captured in Viola s story before he commands her to go to Olivia again concerning his confession of love However the scene begins with a melancholic Orsino demanding for a song performed by Feste The waiting for the jester leads to a conversation between Orsino and Viola Orsino realizes that Viola is in love with someone and interrogates her In this dialogue she insinuates that Orsino is the one she loves but due to her disguise Orsino does not detect the clue although she uses the word your conspicuously three times
