Michael Anderson, Jr., 2004-02-01 Active Skills for Reading Neil J. Anderson, 2003 The Development of Personal Learning Environments in Higher Education Yilin Sun, Xiaoshu Xu, 2024-03-08 The Development of Personal Learning Environments in Higher Education explores how today's knowledge-based learner-centered virtual platforms, which often limit teaching to a complimentary facilitation role, can compromise with the requirements and regulations of colleges and universities. Personal Learning Environments (PLEs) driven by culturally responsive teaching and learner autonomy represent a shift in the higher education paradigm, but how can scholars, designers, administrators, and faculty ensure effective, institutionally compatible construction and management of these systems? This book offers forward-thinking insights into the variety of student-centered learning interactions, particularly culturally and linguistically responsive pedagogies that can be integrated into PLEs. Attending to quality assessment rubrics, the nuances of stakeholders' needs, and theoretically sound frameworks, these cross-cultural interdisciplinary chapters explore how leaders, instructors, technologists, and learners can form a precise yet flexible ecosystem to fully realize PLEs in which co-created intercultural narratives yield rich, relevant digital learning experiences. Introduction to Education presents a critical consideration of the professional policy and curriculum contexts of teaching in Australia. The book covers theoretical topics in chapters addressing assessment, planning, safe learning environments, and working with colleagues, families, carers, and communities. More practical chapters discuss professional experience and building a career after graduation. Rigorous in conception and practical in scope, Introduction to Education welcomes new educators to the theory and practical elements of teaching, learning, and professional practice. Talk For Writing Across The Curriculum Corbett, Pie, Strong, Julia, 2011-08-01 Talk for Writing across the Curriculum takes a dynamic and creative look at how writing non-fiction can be taught across the curriculum. Teaching and Learning the West Point Way Morten G.
