The essays collected here evolved from a two day conference on Ethiopia held at the Johns Hopkins School for Advanced International Studies
Written by both academics and Ethiopians who have participated personally in the events they discuss the papers describe and interpret the Ethiopian revolution and explore its successes failures and intrinsic qualities
The contributors express a variety of viewpoints and approaches to the current crisis situation in Ethiopia demonstrating that although the 15 year revolution has failed to measurably improve the lot of Ethiopians Ethiopia s history demographics and climate have also been important contributing factors
A number of articles deal with aspects of the political crisis while others analyze the economic crisis looking at present problems and their historical roots
Taken together these essays make a major contribution to our understanding of the persistent problems faced by Ethiopia today
Following the editor s introduction the volume is divided into three sections
In Part I four papers explore the Ethiopian state and the problem of power
Individual chapters examine such issues as change and continuity in Ethiopian politics decisions and elections and the question of rural transformation
Part II looks at different facets of the national question now or in the past the character of the leadership the concept of government and the decision making process
The third section analyzes the current economic crisis in two papers which discuss Ethiopia s agricultural crisis and development strategy
The concluding chapter presents an overall perspective on revolution nationality and the Ethiopian state
