Pillars Of Destiny By David Oyedepo:

Pentecostalism and Prosperity K. Attanasi,A. Yong,2012-02-27 While there are a growing number of researchers who are exploring the political and social aspects of the global Renewal movement few have provided sustained socio economic analyses of this phenomenon The editors and contributors to this volume offer perspectives in light of the growth of the Renewal movement in the two thirds world

Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria Nimi Wariboko,2023-06-20 Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria explores how the sacred plays itself out in contemporary Africa It offers a creative analysis of the logics and dynamics of the sacred understood as the constellation of im possibility available to a given community in religion politics epistemology economic development and reactionary violence Using the tools of philosophy postcolonial criticism political theory African studies religious studies and cultural studies Wariboko reveals the intricate connections between the sacred and the existential conditions that characterize disorder terror trauma despair and hope in the postcolonial Africa The sacred Wariboko argues is not about religion or divinity but the set of possibilities opened to a people or denied them the sum total of possibilities conceivable given their level of social technological and economic development These possibilities profoundly speak to the present political moment in sub Saharan Africa

Pursuit Of Faith Lawrence Igwegbe,2012-11-16 I assure you that if you have FAITH as big as a mustard seed you can say to this hill Go from here to there and it will go You can do anything Faith What a unique and exciting thing for anyone to possess but How do you have it That is where most ardent seekers of FAITH seem to be at a loss PURSUIT OF FAITH though may not have shown you directly How to have FAITH but it has done all it can to show you the type of things you would be experiencing to know it is an opportunity for you to exercise your faith and perhaps know HOW to have it

My Mental Health Matter: Beginnings Merisha Meisha,2021-10-01 This book forms part of First People Mental Health Wellness Blog This book has been written as a memorial to God and in memory of the Late John Stephen Ugo Ehikwe Who was born on 2nd October in the United Kingdom and died by suicide on the 17th of June at New Cross Railway Station London

The Oxford Handbook of the Study of Religion Michael Stausberg,Steven Engler,2016-10-27 The Oxford Handbook of the Study of Religion provides a comprehensive overview of the academic study of religion Written by an international team of leading scholars its fifty one chapters are divided thematically into seven sections The first section addresses five major conceptual aspects of research on religion Part two surveys eleven main frameworks of analysis interpretation and explanation of religion Reflecting recent turns in the humanities and social sciences part three considers eight forms of the expression of religion Part four provides a discussion of the ways societies and religions or religious organizations are shaped by different forms of allocation of resources Other chapters in this section consider law the media nature medicine politics science sports and tourism Part five reviews important developments distinctions and arguments for each of the selected topics The study of religion addresses religion as a historical phenomenon and part six looks at seven historical processes Religion is studied in various ways by many disciplines and this Handbook shows that the study of religion is an academic discipline in its own right. The disciplinary profile of this volume is reflected in part seven which considers the history of the discipline and its relevance. Each chapter in the Handbook references at least two different religions to provide fresh and innovative perspectives on key issues in the field. This authoritative collection will advance the state of the discipline and is an invaluable reference for students and scholars.

I Am the Vine, Ye Are the Branches: Exploring the Glory and Purpose of the Branch in the Vine, Megachurches in Africa Babatunde A. Adedibu, Felicity Apaah, Okelloh Ogera, Benson O. Igboin, 2024-10-04. The idea of megachurches is pivotal to the nature, characteristics, and vision of megachurches as a social-divine structure grounded on the belief in a grand God whose omnipotence is revealed, encountered, and dramatised in space and place. Although the concept of megachurch has been discursively and theoretically problematic, sprouting and scouting for a big idea grasping that is in itself elusive, the book takes a pragmatic detour to engage and nuance and also beat into manageable shape what can readily be construed as megachurch at least in Africa. It argues that megachurch is not only related to from the prism of its exponentiality and grandiosity, a feature that is pervasive in its conceptualisation, but it is also much more inserted into a socio-cultural, political, and religious context that is at once empirical and relatable, responsible and responsive, daring and appealing, local and transnational, spiritual and mundane, controversial and soothing. The institutionalisation of megachurch legitimises its existence, radar, and reach in terms of social mobilisation, charismatics, and incarnationality. Central to the praxis of megachurches is the digital turn that zooms out the mega powers and affluence of mega pastors, mega narratives, mega miracles, and mega messes. All of this is sited and situated most profoundly within the mega failure of state to be responsible and account for mega wealth that African political rulers vanquished into their private lounges. The megachurch and state relations might appear complexified and mutually beneficial, the knack with which some African megachurches' pastors dribble and meander through this midfield constantly calls to mind the megachurches' claim of divine imprimatur and the future of its pentecostality.

Destiny Moulding Quotes of Dr. David O. Oyedepo & Dr. Myles Munroe Dcns Akinseye, 2005. Crashed Realities? Gender Dynamics in Nigerian Pentecostalism Itohan Mercy Idumwonyi, 2023-12-18. Crashed Realities explores the lived realities women Pentecostals encounter in male-founded Pentecostal churches. Idumwonyi demonstrates the gender dynamics at play in Nigerian Pentecostalism by exploring the drama that played out in the wake of the nomination of the first woman Pentecostal archbishop in Nigeria and the subsequent attempt to erase her from a significant leadership position and the pages of history. This case underscores how Pentecostalism, which presents as egalitarian, engages in and perpetuates gender disparity, revealing the realities that are crashed every day. This book further explores the profound ambiguities that result from an underlying commitment to patriarchy, making the calls to inclusivity illogical. In contrast, she proposes the advantages of the Pentecost Experience as a favorable background to gender inclusivity and, in turn, human flourishing.
