Plato And Europe:

Plato and Europe Jan Patočka, 2002 The Czech philosopher Jan Patočka 1907-1977 is widely recognized as the most influential thinker to come from postwar Eastern Europe This book presents his most mature ideas about the history of Western philosophy

Thinking After Europe Francesco Tava, Darian Meacham, 2016-08-16 Jan Patočka perhaps more so than any other philosopher in the twentieth century managed to combine intense philosophical insight with a farsighted analysis of the idea and challenges facing Europe as a historical cultural and political signifier As a political dissident in communist Czechoslovakia he also became a moral and political inspiration to a generation of Czechs including Václav Havel He accomplished this in a time of intense political repression when not even the hint of a unified Europe seemed visible by showing in exemplary fashion how concrete thought can be without renouncing in any way its depth Europe as an idea and a political project is a central issue in contemporary political theory Patočka's political thought offers many original insights into questions surrounding the European project Here for the first time a group of leading scholars from different disciplines gathers together to discuss the specific political impact of Patočka's philosophy and its lasting significance

Caring for the Soul in a Postmodern Age Edward F. Findlay, 2012-02-01 In 1977 the sixty-nine year old Czech philosopher Jan Patočka died from a brain hemorrhage following a series of interrogations by the Czechoslovak secret police A student of Husserl and Heidegger he had been arrested along with young playwright Václav Havel for publicly opposing the hypocrisy of the Czechoslovak Communist regime Patočka had dedicated himself as a philosopher to laying the groundwork of what he termed a life in truth This book analyzes Patočka's philosophy and political thought and illuminates the synthesis in his work of Socratic philosophy and its injunction to care for the soul In bridging the gap not only between Husserl and Heidegger but also between postmodern and ancient philosophy Patočka presents a model of democratic politics that is ethical without being metaphysical and transcendental without being foundational
