Poetics Space Gaston Bachelard:

The Poetics of Space Gaston Bachelard, 2014-12-30 A beloved multidisciplinary treatise comes to Penguin Classics Since its initial publication in 1958 The Poetics of Space has been a muse to philosophers architects writers psychologists critics and readers alike The rare work of irresistibly inviting philosophy Bachelard's seminal work brims with quiet revelations and stirring mysterious imagery This lyrical journey takes as its premise the emergence of the poetic image and finds an ideal metaphor in the intimate spaces of our homes Guiding us through a stream of meditations on poetry art and the blooming of consciousness itself Bachelard examines the domestic places that shape and hold our dreams and memories Houses and rooms cellars and attics drawers chests and wardrobes nests and shells nooks and corners No space is too vast or too small to be filled by our thoughts and our reveries In Bachelard's enchanting spaces We are never real historians but always near poets and our emotion is perhaps nothing but an expression of a poetry that was lost This new edition features a foreword by Mark Z Danielewski whose bestselling novel House of Leaves drew inspiration from Bachelard's writings and an introduction by internationally renowned philosopher Richard Kearney who explains the book's enduring importance and its role within Bachelard's remarkable career For more than sixty five years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 500 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators

Summary of Gaston Bachelard's The Poetics of Space Everest Media, 2022-10-10T22:59:00Z

Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 A phenomenological study of the house reveals the fundamental value of inside space The house is a privileged place for studying the intimate values of inside space provided we take it in its unity and complexity 2 The house is a privileged place to study the intimate values of inside space The house like fire and water will allow us to explore the synthesis of immemorial and recollected images 3 The house is a privileged place to study the intimate values of inside space It allows us to dream in peace and it shelters daydreaming the synthesis of immemorial and recollected images 4 The house is a great place to study the intimate values of inside space It allows us to dream in peace and it shelters daydreaming the synthesis of immemorial and recollected images Artist and Attic Hsin Ying Chi, 1999 Artists and Attic sees the relationship between architecture and literature as a concrete reflection of nineteenth century ideology creating an iconic picture of women's position in society and literature during that period In the Victorian house the attic is hidden and neglected yet to a woman artist it is a space of her own to produce a text of her own The author presents the neglected attic as related to the neglected woman and the limited space symbolizes the confinement of woman and the woman writer yet obtaining this space of her own becomes the central concern to women and women writers This book explores the function of the attic in nineteenth century British and American women's writing as it is given meaning and life by the writers To many of the women the attic created a paradoxical image of their seclusion but also of their own poetic space for freedom in creation Many of the writers see the attic as a retreat to escape from patriarchal oppression and a place to seek social identity

Gaston Bachelard, Revised and Updated Roch C. Smith, 2016-06-03
Comprehensive overview of the entire spectrum of works by one of twentieth century France's most original thinkers Gaston Bachelard one of twentieth century France's most original thinkers is known by English language readers primarily as the author of The Poetics of Space and several other books on the imagination but he made significant contributions to the philosophy and history of science In this book Roch C Smith provides a comprehensive introduction to Bachelard's work demonstrating how his writings on the literary imagination can be better understood in the context of his exploration of how knowledge works in science After an overview of Bachelard's writings on the scientific mind as it was transformed by relativity quantum physics and modern chemistry Smith examines Bachelard's works on the imagination in light of particular intellectual values Bachelard derived from science His trajectory from science to a specifically literary imagination is traced by recognizing his concern with what science teaches about how we know and his increasing preoccupation with questions of being when dealing with poetic imagery Smith also explores the material and dynamic imagination associated with the four elements fire water air and earth and the phenomenology of creative imagination in Bachelard's Poetics of Space his Poetics of Reverie and in the fragments of Poetics of Fire

The Poetics of Reverie Gaston Bachelard, 1971-06-01 In this his last significant work an admired French philosopher provides extraordinary meditations on the relations between the imagining consciousness and the world positing the notion of reverie as its most dynamic point of reference In his earlier book The Poetics of Space Bachelard considered several kinds of praiseworthy space conducive to the flow of poetic imagery In Poetics of Reverie he considers the absolute origins of that imagery language sexuality childhood the Cartesian ego and the universe Approaching the psychology of wonder from the phenomenological viewpoint Bachelard demonstrates the auriferous potential of all that awareness Thus he distinguishes what is merely a phenomenon of relaxation from the kind of reverie which poetry puts on the right track the track of expanding consciousness

Aitken, 2016-02-17 Change is inevitable we are told A job is lost a couple falls in love children leave home an addict joins Narcotics Anonymous two nations go to war a family member's health deteriorates a baby is born a universal health care bill is voted into law Life comprises events over which we have considerable partial or little or no control The distance between the event and our daily lives suggests a quirky spatial politics Our lives move forward depending upon how events play out in concert with our reactions to them Drawing on nearly three decades of geographic projects that involve ethnographies and interviews with and stories about young people in North and South America Europe and Asia and using the innovative technique of ethnopoetry Aitken examines key life changing events to look at the interconnections between space politics change and emotions Analysing the intricate spatial complexities of these events he explores the emotions that undergird the ways change takes place and the perplexing spatial politics that almost always accompany transformations Aitken positions young people as effective agents of change without romanticizing their political involvement as fantasy and unrealistic dreaming Going further he suggests that it is the emotional palpability of youth engagement and activism that makes it so potent and productive Pulling on the spatial theories of de Certeau Deleuze Massey Agamben Ranci re Zizek and Grosz amongst others Aitken argues that spaces are transformative to the degree that they open the political and he highlights the complexly interwoven political economic social and cultural practices that simultaneously embed and embolden people in places If we think of spaces as events and events encourage change then spaces and people become other through complex relations Taking poetry to be an emotive construction of language Aitken re visualizes contorts and arranges people s words and gestures to Bachelard is neither a self confessed and tortured atheist like Satre nor like Chardin a heretic combining a belief in God with a proficiency in modern science But within the French context he is almost as important as they are because he has a pseudo religious force without taking a stand on religion To define him as briefly as possible he is a philosopher with a professional training in the sciences who devoted most of the second phase of his career to promoting that aspect of human nature which often seems most inimical to science the poetic imagination J G Weightman The New York Times Review of Books Hope, Utopia and Creativity in Higher Education Craig A. Hammond,2017-01-12 Reappraising ideas associated with Ernst Bloch Roland Barthes and Gaston Bachelard within the context of a utopian pedagogy Hope Utopia and Creativity in Higher Education reframes the transformative creative and collaborative potential of education offering new concepts tactics and pedagogical possibilities Craig A Hammond explores ways of analysing and democratising not only pedagogical conception knowledge and delivery but also the learning experience and processes of negotiation and peer assessment Hammond shows how the incorporation of already existent learner hopes daydreams and creative possibilities can open up new opportunities for thinking about popular culture and memory learning and knowledge and collaborative communities of support Drawing together theoretical and cultural material in a teaching and learning environment of empowerment Hammond illustrates that formative articulations of alternative utopian futures across sociological humanities and education studies subjects and curricula becomes possible Air and Dreams Gaston Bachelard,1988 The Philosophy and Poetics of Gaston

Alternative Temporalities Teresa Valentini,Angela Weiser,John Zilcosky,2024-11-30 Alternative temporalities have often emerged as a reaction to the normativizing force of time demonstrating that time can be used as an instrument of power and oppression but also as a means to resist this very oppression Alternative Temporalities draws on analyses of modern literature to examine this often neglected role of time By exploring forms of temporal resistance in artistic representation such as short stories and novels that challenge the imposition of colonial gender or capitalist temporal orders the book reveals how storytelling can be an essential tool in questioning and pushing back against coercive temporal structures The book analyses literary representations of time that challenge dominant temporalities and intersect different disciplines such as gender and sexuality studies trauma and Indigenous studies race and identity and religion It features narrative analyses proposing alternative embodied experiences of time focusing on topics including the temporality of the AIDS affected body the experience of time in prison and slowness in opposition to modern acceleration Ultimately Alternative Temporalities aims to create new theories as well as practices that may foster more diverse and inclusive ways of perceiving and embodying time The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 Structure and Meaning in Tonal Music Carl Schachter,L.
