Handbook of Asian Criminology Jianhong Liu, Bill Heberton, Susyan Jou, 2012-12-09 The Handbook of Asian Criminology aims to be a key reference for international scholars with an interest in the broad theme of international criminology in general and the Asian region in particular Contextualization is a key theme in this book The role of context is often underemphasized in international criminology so the Handbook of Asian Criminology's premise that crime and the responses to it are best understood as deeply embedded in the cultural specificity of the environment which produces them will play a key role throughout the work Attention will be given to country and region specific attitudes towards crime and punishment

Islamic Law and the Law of Armed Conflict Niaz A Shah, 2011-03-03 Islamic Law and the Law of Armed Conflict The Conflict in Pakistan demonstrates how international law can be applied in Muslim states in a way that is compatible with Islamic law Within this broader framework of compatible application Niaz A Shah argues that the Islamic law of qital i.e armed conflict and the law of armed conflict are compatible with each other and that the former can complement the latter at national and regional levels Shah identifies grey areas in the Islamic law of qital and argues for their expansion and clarification Shah also calls for new rules to be developed to cover what he calls the blind spots in the Islamic law of qital He shows how Islamic law and the law of armed conflict could contribute to each other in certain areas such as the law of occupation air and naval warfare and the use of modern weaponry Such a contribution is neither prohibited by Islamic law nor by international law Shah applies the Islamic law of qital and the law of armed conflict to a live armed conflict in Pakistan and argues that all parties the Taliban the security forces of Pakistan and the American CIA have violated one or more of the applicable laws He maintains that whilst militancy is a genuine problem fighting militants does not allow or condone violation of the law Islamic Law and the Law of Armed Conflict will be of interest to students and scholars of international law Islamic law international relations security studies and south east Asian studies

South Asian Filmscapes Elora Halim Chowdhury, Esha Niyogi De, 2020-11-30 New political realities and shared histories connect film cultures across borders In South Asia massive anticolonial movements in the twentieth century created nation states and reset national borders forming the basis for emerging film cultures Following the upheaval of the partition of India and Pakistan in 1947 and the Bangladesh Liberation War of 1971 new national cinemas promoted and reinforced prevailing hierarches of identity and belonging At the same time industrial and independent cinemas contributed to remarkably porous and hybrid film cultures reflecting the intertwining of South Asian histories and their reciprocal cultural influences This cross fertilization within South Asian cultural production continues today South Asian Filmscapes excavates these complex politics and poetics of bordered identity and crossings through selected histories of cinema in South Asia Several essays reveal ways in which fixed notions of national identity have been destabilized by the cross border mobility of filmed arts and practitioners while others interrogate how filmic politics intersects with discourses of nationalism sexuality and gender religion and language Together they offer a fluid approach to the multiple histories and encounters that conjure South Asia as a geographic and political entity in the region and globally through a cinematic imagination Birth of Bangladesh as Canada Walks a Diplomatic Tightrope Mustafa

Chowdhury,2024-11-14 This book focuses on the activities of the government of Canada Canadian NGOs Canadian media and the people of Canada during the War of Liberation of Bangladesh in 1971 It outlines Canada s assistance to the victims of the military crackdown as well as Canada s mediatory role Having no strong ties of strategic interests in Pakistan or India Canada had a sympathetic understanding of the two main parties involved the military government of President Yahya Khan and the democratic rights of the people of Pakistan represented by Sheikh Mujibur Rahman prime minister designate While the Nixon administration openly favoured Pakistan Canada s foreign policy constrained Canada The government was barraged with endless questions Was the military take over and crackdown a violation of the democratic rights of the people of Pakistan Should the process of democracy be upheld under all circumstances Should President Yahya continue his military reprisals in East Pakistan since the integrity of Pakistan was at stake What was India s role Was India dragged into the situation due to the influx of refugees What role should Canada play as a senior member of the Commonwealth There were no clear answers to these questions The declaration of independence for Bangladesh by the rebel forces and the formation of the Provisional Government of Bangladesh in India had already created another new twist on the complex issue Throughout the nine long months of the struggle for Bangladesh s independence Canada maintained its neutrality Yet it will be seen how Canada chose not to be a spectator but a player doing her best while still adhering to its foreign policy of non intervention
