misuse by scammers and are used for the dissemination of delusive speech The analysis centres around the concept of delusive speech a sub set of disinformation designed to deceive and motivate by criminal intent Looking beyond the economic and disruptive impacts of sharing economy platforms like Uber Airbnb and others this book situates these Big Tech giants as mass communication channels that are frequently misused by bad actors to distribute dangerous content globally Drawing from over 600 cases of victims lured into scams or physical danger via misleading Airbnb listings the book provides a detailed case study exposing Airbnb s failure to establish legitimate safety measures despite branding its platform as a community of trust Incorporating netnography and thematic analysis the author theorises the deceptive semiotic structure of delusive speech and evaluates practical mechanisms Airbnb could employ to prevent scams and crime on its platform With a global audience including researchers in communication and media studies digital media and media industries as well as tech journalists Silicon Valley critics policymakers and digital rights advocates this book unmasks how sharing economy giants like Airbnb contribute to an epidemic of online deception causing real world harm

Connected Histories Eva Pfanzelter,Dirk Rupnow,Éva Kovács,Marianne Windsperger,2024-09-23 The World Wide Web WWW and digitisation have become important sites and tools for the history of the Holocaust and its commemoration Today some memory institutions use the Internet at a high professional level as a venue for self presentation and as a forum for the discussion of Holocaust related topics for potentially international transcultural and interdisciplinary user groups At the same time it is not always the established institutions that utilise the technical possibilities and potential of the Internet to the maximum Creative and sometimes controversial new forms of storytelling of the Holocaust or more traditional ways of remembering the genocide presented in a new way with digital media often come from people or groups who are not in the realm of influence of the large memorial sites museums and archives Such private stagings have experienced a particular upswing since the boom of social media This democratisation of Holocaust memory and history is crucial though it is as yet undecided how much it will ultimately reinforce old structures and cultural regional or other inequalities or reinvent them The Digital space as an arbitrary and limitless archive for the mediation of the Holocaust spanning from Russia to Brazil is at the centre of the essays collected in this volume This space is also considered as a forum for negotiation a meeting place and a battleground for generations and stories and as such offers the opportunity to reconsider the transgenerational transmission of trauma family histories and communication Here it becomes evident there are new societal intentions and decision making structures that exceed the capabilities of traditional mass media and thrive on the participation of a broad public
