MANDAL, 2025-03-11 Preface The third volume of Emerging Trends and Issues in Humanities and Social Sciences Volume III delves deeper into diverse and pressing issues through critical and interdisciplinary lenses It encompasses the evolving intersections of traditional knowledge and contemporary societal challenges It brings together scholarly works on various topics reflecting the dynamic nature of quantitative and qualitative research This volume sincerely invites notable contributors to interrogate critical issues such as gender dynamics disability narratives legal frameworks climate change and digital democracy fostering crucial dialogue on identity culture governance and sustainability This compendium extends the frontiers of academic inquiry and bridges theoretical paradigms with contemporary praxis addressing the exigencies of a rapidly transforming world The editor acknowledges the contributors scholarly acumen and the editorial team s dedication to curating this volume I hope it will catalyze further intellectual inquiry and inspire readers to engage with the complexities of human experience and societal transformation This volume broadens the horizon by offering a seminal recourse in the domain while advancing the scope and depth of the Humanities and Social Sciences

Cultural Perspectives on Aging Andrea Hülsen-Esch,2021-11-22 Current demographic developments and change due to long life expectancies low birth rates changing family structures and economic and political crises causing migration and flight are having a significant impact on intergenerational relationships the social welfare system the job market and what elderly people can expect from their retirement and environment The socio political relevance of the categories of age and ageing have been increasing and gaining much attention within different scholarly fields However none of the efforts to identify age related diseases or the processes of ageing in order to develop suitable strategies for prevention and therapy have had any effect on the fact that attitudes against the elderly are based on patterns that are determined by parameters that or not biological or sociological age ing is also a cultural fact This book reveals the importance of cultural factors in order to build a framework for analyzing and understanding cultural constructions of ageing bringing together scholarly discourses from the arts and humanities as well as social medical and psychological fields of study The contributions pave the way for new strategies of caring for elderly people

Political Fictions Joan Didion,2002-08-27 NATIONAL BESTSELLER In these coolly observant essays the iconic bestselling writer looks at the American political process and at that handful of insiders who invent year in and year out the narrative of public life Through the deconstruction of the sound bites and photo ops of three presidential campaigns one presidential impeachment and an unforgettable sex scandal Didion reveals the mechanics of American politics She tells us the uncomfortable truth about the way we vote the candidates we vote for and the people who tell us to vote for them These pieces build one on the other into a disturbing portrait of the American political landscape providing essential reading on our democracy

Narrative Medicine James Phelan,2022-10-27 Narrative Medicine A Rhetorical Rx rests on the principles that storytelling is central to medical encounters between caregivers and patients and that narrative competence enhances medical competence Thus the book s goal is to develop the narrative competence of its reader Grounded in the rhetorical theory of narrative that Phelan has been constructing over the course of his career this volume utilizes a three step method Offering a jargon free explication of core concepts of narrative such as character progression perspective time and space Demonstrating how to use those concepts to interpret a diverse group of medical narratives including two graphic memoirs Pointing to the relevance of those demonstrations for caregiver patient interactions Narrative Medicine A Rhetorical Rx is the ideal volume for undergraduate students interested in pursuing careers in healthcare students in medical and allied health professional schools and graduate students in the health humanities and social sciences

Death within the Text

Adriana Teodorescu,2019-03-13 The book tackles the challenging theme of death as seen through the lens of literature and its connections with history the visual arts anthropology philosophy and other fields in humanities It searches for answers to three questions what can we know about death how is death socialised and how and for which purposes is death aesthetically shaped Unlike many other publications the volume does not endorse the fallacy of over simplifying death by seeing it either in an exclusively positive light or by reducing it to a purely literary figure Using literature s potential to stimulate critical thinking many contemporary stereotypical configurations of death and dying are debunked and many hitherto unforeseen ways in which death functions as a complex trigger of meaning making are revealed The book proves that death is an inexhaustible source of meanings which should be understood as peremptorily plural discontinuous problematic competitive and often conflictual It offers original contributions to the field of death studies and also to literary and cultural studies

Run River Joan Didion,2011-02-23 The iconic writer s electrifying first novel is a story of marriage murder and betrayal that only she could tell with such nuance sympathy and suspense from the bestselling award winning author of The Year of Magical Thinking and Let Me Tell You What I Mean Everett McClellan and his wife Lily are the great grandchildren of pioneers and what happens to them is a tragic epilogue to the pioneer experience a haunting portrait of a marriage whose wrong turns and betrayals are at once absolutely idiosyncratic and a razor sharp commentary on the history of California
