Group Theories of Religion and the Individual Clement Charles Julian Webb, 1916 Thinking about Religion Ivan Strenski, 2006-02-13 This history based introduction to the study of religion introduces the main methods theories and theorists in the field Introduces the main methods theories and theorists in the field Engages with leading figures from the history of anthropology sociology psychology philosophy and theology who have influenced the study of religion Reveals how the study of religion evolved in response to great cultural conflicts and major historical events Also considers the influence of inner experience tackling issues such as human survival and wish fulfilment Thinking About Religion Ivan Strenski, 2006-03-17 Matching pivotal theorists and theories of religion alongside cutting edge criticism from a team of leading contemporary scholars this vibrant collection enables students to gain a balanced understanding of the diverse methods theories and theorists involved in the historical and methodological development of the study of religion It can be used alongside Ivan Strenski s textbook Thinking about Religion An Historical Introduction to Theories of Religion to offer a complete resource for introductory students of religious studies Creates a useful mix of classic and contemporary responses to issues in the study of religion ideal for those coming to the subject for the first time Traces the major historical and methodological development of the study of religion in the modern West enabling students to gain a balanced understanding of the diverse methods theories and theorists involved Primary theorists featured include Cherbury Durkheim Eliade Frazer

Freud Hume Brede Kristensen Malinowski Max Müller Ninian Smart Robertson Smith Spinoza Tylor and Weber Contemporary contributors include Winston Davis Sidney Hook Robert Alun Jones Karl Menninger Sam Preus Philip Rieff
Robert Segal Georges Sorel George Stocking and William Dwight Whitney Contemporary Theories of Religion Michael Stausberg, 2009-06-19 Interest in theories of religion has never been greater Scholars debate single theoretical approaches in different scholarly journals while the new atheists such as Richard Dawkins and Daniel Dennett criticize the whole idea of religion For everyone eager to understand the current state of the field Contemporary Theories of Religion surveys the neglected landscape in its totality Michael Stausberg brings together leading scholars of the field to review and discuss seventeen contemporary theories of religion As well as scholars of religion it features anthropologists archaeologists classicists evolutionary biologists philosophers and sociologists Each chapter provides students with background information on the theoretician a presentation of the theory s basic principles an analysis of basic assumptions and a review of previous critiques Concluding with a section entitled Back and Forth Stausberg compares the different theories and points to further avenues of discussion for the future Religion, Theory, Critique Richard King, 2017-07-18 Religion Theory Critique is an essential tool for learning about theory and method in the study of religion Leading experts engage with contemporary and classical theories as well as non Western cultural contexts Unlike other collections this anthology emphasizes the dynamic relationship between religion as an object of study and different methodological approaches and openly addresses the question of the manifold ways in which religion secular and culture are imagined within different disciplinary horizons This volume is the first textbook which seeks to engage discussion of classical approaches with contemporary cultural and critical theories Contributors write on the influence of the natural sciences in the study of religion the role of European Christianity in modeling theories of religion religious experience and the interface with cognitive science the structure and function of religious language the social scientific study of religion ritual in religion the phenomenology of religion critical theory and religion embodiment and religion the impact of colonialism and modernity theorizing religion in terms of race and ethnicity links among religion nationalism and globalization the interplay of gender sex and religion and religion and the environment Each chapter introduces the topic identifies key theorists and issues and respects the pluralistic nature of the scholarship in the field Altogether this collection scrutinizes the explicit and implicit assumptions theorists make about religion as an object of analysis Ten Theories of Religion Daniel Pals, Religion James Thrower, 2019-08-08 What is Religion This is the first text to review in a single volume the theories of religion which have been put forward by both believers and non believers Why theories of religion After raising and answering this question the author begins his examination of theories of religion by first looking at the explanations given by religious believers Revelation and Religious Experience He then considers the views of thinkers who have sought to transform religion into philosophy Plato Kant and Hegel before reviewing the theories of those who have seen religion as arising out of errors in primitive thinking Tylor Frazer and Levy Bruhl and those masters of suspicion as Paul Ricoeur has called them Feuerbach Nietzsche Marx and Freud who offered what they believed to be exhaustive psychological and sociological theories of the origin and nature of religion In the course of his discussion the author also engages with many contemporary thinkers whose discussions of religion have been based on these classical accounts In a brief conclusion the author tries to assess the future of the religions of the world in light of the increasingly close inter religious encounters that are becoming a feature of the global village of the twenty first century

Key Features Comprehensive survey of the field Theories will be considered against the phenomenon of religion world wide Theories offered in a way that lets the student make up his or her own mind
