Reality unequivocally pre-exists & can be understood & explained through science.

Reality is multivalent and shifting; beneath flux may be certain shared qualities marking out non-contingent dimensions of human experience.

There is no reality apart from the human beings experiencing that reality & giving it meaning.

Knowledge comprises material, reproducible evidence that can be measured & mathematized.

Truth claims can be evaluated in terms of real-world evidence; some measure of shared understanding is possible.

Knowledge is constructed through language & discourse; it is therefore tentative, partial, relative, & changeable.
