philosophy of how to be Yoruba in this innovative study As he focuses on historical writings If divination practices the use of proverbs in contemporary speech photography gendered ideas of dressing well and the formalities of ceremony and speech at celebratory occasions Adeniji contends that being Yoruba is indeed an art and Yoruba-ness is a dynamic phenomenon that responds to cultural shifts as Yoruba people inhabit an increasingly globalized world Ancient Text Messages of the Yoruba Bata Drum Amanda Villepastour,2016-12-05 The bata is one of the most important and representative percussion traditions of the people in southwest Nigeria and is now learnt and performed around the world In Cuba their own bata tradition derives from the Yoruba bata from Africa yet has had far more research attention than its African predecessor Although the bata is one of the oldest known Yoruba drumming traditions the drum and its unique language are now unfamiliar to many contemporary Yoruba people Amanda Villepastour provides the first academic study of the bata's communication technology and the elaborate coded spoken language of bata drummers which they refer to as ena bata Villepastour explains how the bata drummers speech encoding method links into universal linguistic properties unknown to the musicians themselves The analysis draws the direct links between what is spoken in Yoruba how Yoruba is transformed into the coded language ena how ena prescribes the drum strokes and finally how listeners and which listeners extract linguistic meaning from what is drummed The description and analysis of this unique musical system adds substantially to what is known about bata drumming specifically Yoruba drumming generally speech surrogacy in music and coded systems of speaking This book will appeal not only to ethnomusicologists and anthropologists but also to linguists drummers and those interested in African Studies A Biblical Theology of Gerassapience Joel A. A. Ajayi,2010 Ancient cultures such as that of the Hebrews commonly associated wisdom with advanced years In A Biblical Theology of Gerassapience the author investigates the validity of this correlation through an eclectic approach including linguistic semantic tradition historical and socio-anthropological methods to pertinent biblical and extra-biblical texts There are significant variations in the estimation of gerassapience or old age wisdom in each period of ancient Israel's life that is in pre-monarchical monarchical and post-monarchical Israel Throughout this study appropriate cross-cultural parallels are drawn from the cultures of ancient Israel's neighbors and of modern societies such as the West African Yoruba tribe The overall results are bi-dimensional On the one hand there are semantic elements of gerassapience such as the elusiveness of wisdom and the mild fluidity of old age Both terms have strong contextual affinity with minimal exceptions Thus the attribution of wisdom to old age is evident but not absolute in the Hebrew Bible Old Testament On the other hand gerassapience is depicted as primarily didactic through direct and indirect instructions and counsels of the elderly fostering the saging fear of Yahweh legacies On the whole socio-anthropocentric tendencies of gerassapience that is of making old age a repertoire of wisdom are checked by theological warrants of theosapience Yahwistic wisdom Therefore in the Hebrew Bible the fear of Yahweh is also the beginning of growing old and wise The World's Major Languages Bernard Comrie,2018-04-17 The World's Major Languages features over 50 of the world's languages and language families. This revised edition includes updated bibliographies for each chapter and up-to-date census figures. The featured languages have been chosen based on the number of speakers, their role as official languages, and their cultural and historical importance. Each language is looked at in depth, and the chapters provide information on both grammatical features and on salient features of the language's history and cultural role. The World's Major Languages is an accessible and essential reference work for linguists.

Christian-Muslim Relations. A Bibliographical History Volume 19. Sub-Saharan Africa and Latin America (1800-1914), 2022-06-20

Christian Muslim Relations: A Bibliographical History 19 CMR 19 covering Sub-Saharan Africa, Latin America, and the Caribbean in the period 1800-1914 is a further volume in a general history of relations between the two faiths from the 7th century to the early 20th century. It comprises a series of introductory essays and the main body of detailed entries. These treat all the works surviving or lost that have been recorded. They provide biographical details of the authors, descriptions, and assessments of the works themselves, and complete accounts of manuscripts, editions, translations, and studies. The result of collaboration between numerous new and leading scholars, CMR 19 along with the other volumes in this series is intended as a basic tool for research in Christian-Muslim relations. Section Editors: Ines Aeri, Todd Clinton Bennett, Luis F. Bernabé Pons, Jaco Beyers, Emanuele Colombo, Lejla Demiri, Martha Frederiks, David D. Grafton, Stanisław Grodzki, Alan Guenther, Vincenzo Lavenia, Arely Medina, Diego Melo Carrasco, Alain Messaoudi, Gordon Nickel, Claire Norton, Reza Pourjavady, Douglas Pratt, Charles Ramsey, Peter Riddell, Umar Ryad, Cornelia Soldat, Charles Tieszen, Carsten Walbinger, Catherina Wenzel.

Shakespeare in and Out of Africa Jane Plastow, Martin Banham, 2013. A key volume for Shakespeare, African theatre, and postcolonial cultural scholars promoting debate on the role of Western cultural icons in contemporary postcolonial cultures. This volume takes as its starting point an interrogation of the African contributions to the Globe to Globe festival staged in London in 2012, where 37 Shakespeare productions were offered, each from a different nation. Five African companies were invited to perform, and there are articles on four of these productions examining issues of interculturalism, postcolonialism, language interpretation, and reception. The contributors are both Shakespeare and African theatre scholars promoting discourse from a range of geographical and cultural perspectives. A critical debate about the process of the Globe to Globe festival is initiated in the form of a discussion article featuring some of its directors and actors. Two further articles look at Shakespeare productions made purely for Africa: from Mauritius and Cape Verde, and leading Nigerian playwright and cultural commentator Femi Osofisan provides an overview article examining Shakespeare in Africa in the 21st century. The playscript in this volume of African Theatre is Femi Osofisan's Wesoo Hamlet or the Resurrection of Hamlet. Volume Editor: JANE PLASTOW. Series Editors: Martin Banham, Emeritus Professor of Drama; James Gibbs, Senior Visiting Research Fellow, University of the West of England; Femi Osofisan, Professor of Drama at the University of Ibadan; Jane Plastow, Professor of African Theatre, University of Leeds; Yvette Hutchison, Associate Professor, Department of Theatre Performance Studies, University of Warwick.
