

DRAFTING RESOLUTIONS OF BOARD AND MEMBERS

COURSE INTRODUCTION

A resolution is an agreement or decision made by the directors or members (or a class of members) of a company. When a resolution is passed, the company is bound by it. Essentially, a resolution is written documentation describing an action that has been authorised by either the directors or members of a Company. Although the process for writing a resolution is not particularly complex, it has to be precise in order for the resolution to meet the legal standing that it was intended for.
