Critical appreciation of the poem

About the poem / poet and the title:

The poem "Indian Weavers" is written by Sarojini Naidu. Sarojini Naidu was a political activist, feminist and the first Indian woman, who became the President of the Indian National Congress. She is also called as the Nightingale of India, because of her lyrical poetry.

In this poem the poet talks about the three types of garments that the weavers weave at the three particular times of the day. Each stanza of the poem represents the three important events of life, that is, birth (childhood), adulthood (youth) and death (old age). The colours mentioned in these three stanzas are very significant, as they indicate the moods related to the events.

The title of the poem indicates that the poem is about the Indian weavers and the variety of clothes that they are weaving for different occasions.

Theme of the poem:

In this poem the poetess speaks about three important stages of life and relates them with different colours at different times of the day. Birth is the first stage and blue cloth is woven in the morning, for marriage green and purple colour veil is woven in the evening and finally a white shroud for a dead person at night.

Poetic Style:

The poem "Indian Weavers" is a short, rhythmic poem, as it adds to the lyrical quality of the poem. The beauty of the Indian culture has been brought out here very skillfully, by the Indian weavers. The question - answer method used in the poem is also very effective, as it gives a conversational tone to the poem. The rhyme scheme used here is "aabb".

Language and poetic devices:

The poem here appears to be very simple, as it highlights the job of the Indian weavers. The various stages of human life are portrayed here very beautifully in this poem, using the figures of speech like a metaphor, simile and imagery. The colours used here are the symbols, which expresses the moods of different stages in life.

Special feature:

The poem tells us about the three important stages of human life, that is birth, marriage and death. The poetess here relates, these stages to different colours at three different times of the day.

Message:

From this poem we get the message that, as the weavers express their moods differently for different events, we should also deal accordingly with the inevitable cycle of our life and prepare ourselves to face ups and downs in life.

On The Sublime Critical Appreciation:

On the Sublime Active 1st century Longinus, 2022-05-28 On the Sublime is a foundational text in literary criticism attributed to the 1st century philosopher Longinus. This treatise explores the nature of aesthetic expression articulating what constitutes the sublime in literature and oratory. Longinus dissects various examples from classical texts employing a rhetorical style rich in examples and persuasive techniques while advocating for the emotional impact that great works can evoke. His analysis not only emphasizes elevated language and grandeur but also delves into the psychological and philosophical underpinnings of how artists can transcend mere representation to touch on profound truths situating the work within the broader context of Hellenistic thought on beauty and rhetoric. Longinus's insights are shaped by his experiences as a scholar in a Hellenistic milieu where the appreciation of art and rhetoric was paramount. As a critic he navigated the tensions between emotional response and technical excellence a lens through which he examined both contemporary and historical works. His profound understanding of the capabilities of language reflects a lifetime immersed in the contemplation of art and its effect on human sensibility providing a framework that resonates throughout subsequent centuries of literary analysis. For those interested in the enduring legacy of literary theory On the Sublime is an essential read. Longinus not only defines the sublime but also inspires writers and critics alike to strive for greatness in their expressive endeavors. This text serves as both a historical document and an invaluable guide for anyone seeking to comprehend the profound depths of beauty in literature.

Hazlitt on English Literature: An Introduction to the Appreciation of Literature William Hazlitt, 2019-11-19 In Hazlitt on English Literature: An Introduction to the Appreciation of Literature William Hazlitt presents a rich tapestry of literary critique that seeks to illuminate the art of reading and understanding English literature. Hazlitt's prose is characterized by its vivid expressions and his profound engagement with aesthetic values inviting readers to appreciate literature not only as a collection of texts but as a reflection of human experience and emotion. The work contextualizes the literary canon of the early 19th century critically assessing prominent authors and their contributions weaving in both historical perspectives and personal insights that underscore the enduring relevance of literature as a means of understanding society. William Hazlitt was a leading literary and art critic of his time influenced by the Romantic ideals and the philosophical undercurrents of the Enlightenment. His broad intellectual pursuits coupled with personal experiences such as his connections to significant literary figures and his own tumultuous life shaped his critical perspectives. Hazlitt's passion for unraveling the nuances of thought and feeling found in literature informs his advocacy for a deeper appreciation of the written word making him an essential voice in the evolution of literary criticism. This book is a must read for anyone seeking to cultivate a richer understanding of literature's nuances and intricacies. Hazlitt's insightful commentary encourages readers to engage with texts on a deeper level enriching their appreciation of the art form. Whether you're a student, a scholar, or a casual reader this work serves as a gateway into the profound world of literary appreciation fostering a lifelong
