Danielle Dickens, Dionne Stephens

Gender Blender:

Gender Blender Blake Nelson, 2009-02-25 Perfect for fans of classic teen comedies like She's All That and Freaky Friday this is the story of two tweens who can't imagine problems bigger than their own until they wake up one morning and realize they've switched bodies All Emma wants is for Jeff Matthews to notice her to avoid sexist boys and to finally get her period All Tom wants is to not look like a wuss at school to figure out his new blended family and to get a chance with Kelly A Neither thinks about much else That is until something freaky happens Emma and Tom wake up one morning in each other's bodies Now all Emma can think about is how to dodge the mean girls who torment her and all Tom can think about is how to avoid being alone with Jeff Matthews This hilarious and thought provoking read will have tweens wondering what high school is really like for the classmates they consider their opposites and have them second guessing the pre-conceived notions they may have about each other

Creating Identity Jayashree Kamblé, 2023-04-11 While the world often categorizes women in reductive false binaries careerist versus mother feminine versus fierce romance novels a unique form of the love story offer an imaginative space of mingled alternatives for a heroine on her journey to selfhood In Creating Identity Jayashree Kamblé examines the romance genre with its sensile flexibility in retaining what audiences find desirable and discarding what is not by asking an important question Who is the romance heroine and what does she want To find the answer Kamblé explores how heroines in ten novels reject societal labels and instead remake themselves on their own terms with their own agency Using a truly intersectional approach Kamblé combines gender and sexuality Marxism critical race theory and literary criticism to survey various aspects of heroines identities such as sexuality gender work citizenship and race Ideal for readers interested in gender studies and literary criticism Creating Identity highlights a genre in which heroines do not accept that independence and strong loving relationships are mutually exclusive but instead demand both echoing the call from the very readers who have made this genre so popular

Psychology of Black Womanhood Danielle Dickens, Dionne Stephens, 2024-06-05 Psychology of Black Womanhood is the first textbook to provide an authoritative jargon free affordable and holistic exploration of the sociohistorical and psychological experiences of Black girls and women in the United States while discussing the intersection of their identities The authors include research on young middle aged and maturing women LGBTQ women and non binary individuals women with disabilities and women across social classes This textbook is firmly rooted in Black feminist womanist and psychological frameworks that incorporate literature from related disciplines such as sociology Black African American studies women's studies and public health Psychology of Black Womanhood speaks to the psychological study of experiences of girls and women of African descent in the United States and their experiences in the context of identity development education religion body image physical and mental health racialized gendered violence sex and sexuality work relationships aging motherhood and activism This textbook has implications for practice in counseling social work health care education advocacy and policy

The Podcaster's Dilemma Nicholas L. Baham, III, Nolan

Higdon,2022-02-15 A fascinating exploration of modern podcasting as a tool for decolonization In The Podcaster's Dilemma: Decolonizing Podcasters in the Era of Surveillance Capitalism Drs Nolan Higdon and Nicholas Baham III connect contemporary podcasting to the broader history of the use of radio technology in the service of anti colonial struggle and revolution By organizing the book's analysis of decolonization through podcasting via three distinct activities interrogation and critique counter narrative and call to action the authors create a lens through which they analyze and evaluate the decolonizing potential of new podcasts The book also critiques the threat to the decolonizing efforts of some modern podcasts by the growing phenomena of surveillance capitalism and the emerging podcast oligopoly The Podcaster's Dilemma reveals both potential and challenges in the podcasting space as podcasters struggle to put forward insightful new narratives funded by anti capitalist models This important book also includes A thorough introduction to the podcasters profiled in the book and an examination of how they're using podcasts to decolonize themselves from colonial mentalities Practical discussions of how the profiled podcasters interrogate and critique the veracity of neoliberal racist imperialist patriarchal heterosexist classist and ableist white centered ideologies Comprehensive explorations of the counter narrative production phase of a decolonizing podcaster's process In depth treatments of the community activism created by decolonizing podcasts The Podcaster's Dilemma: Decolonizing Podcasters in the Era of Surveillance Capitalism is an indispensable new resource for critical media communications ethnic studies and political science scholars as well as undergraduate and graduate students It is also perfect for anyone interested in the broad expansion of intersectional voices in dialogue about everything from political organizing to plant based diets

Invisible Families Mignon Moore,2011-07-30 Mignon Moore's title says it all Invisible Families Scholarship on lesbian and gay issues has been slow to recognize the importance of children and family among those in same sex relationships and has paid scant attention to racial minorities nor have students of African American life given much attention to Black lesbians and gay men We are left with the unfortunate impression to paraphrase the authors of But Some of Us Are Brave that all the lesbians and gays are White and all the Blacks are heterosexual This book stands as a significant corrective to these multiple myopias offering a nuanced account of the kinds of pressures Black women raising children with female partners encounter and revealing the creativity and resilience they bring to the struggle Ellen Lewin University of Iowa author of Gay Fatherhood: Narratives of Family and Citizenship in America Invisible Families shakes up longstanding theoretical conceptualizations of racial identity family formation and motherhood contesting basic assumptions about black families Tightly conceptualized and highly engaging Kerry Ann Rockquemore author of Raising Biracial Children
