

Great Answers To Common Interview Questions

Your Options accountants can assist in preparing meaningful and professional – but in the meantime, here are copies of the most common and best answer interview questions and our suggestions on how to best answer the job candidate.

- 1) Why do you believe you are suitable for the job? - This is your chance to sell yourself in a concise but clear manner. Don't repeat experiences and skills you possess that make you a candidate that does not fit and you do strong professional skills for improving your personal image and a strong portfolio from your previous employer that is specific to the job.

Example: From my understanding of the role I believe that my high volume accounts experience with customers and large corporate environment and my exceptional analytical skills, suggest that the requirements of the role because it is the challenging work, efficient to detail, strong team orientation and focused approach that makes me ideal for your role.

- 2) Why did you leave your last job? - Answer to be well prepared with the facts. Do not disclose your previous manager, the reason but that it was a great experience and made you grow, but your answer is instead of what you are going to continue to your career do what is right that are looking for. Be careful about that message that your response can send - sometimes looking roles for "more challenge" may suggest that you are not doing really, looking for more money can be seen to be the wrong direction and leaving because of a personal conflict several letters can reflect badly on you. If you were made redundant - always explain the full circumstances to ensure the story reflects reality.

Example: I had been with that company for 4.5 years and progressed to the role of credit control. The working structure during that time, it was time to seek a new challenge and I am ideally seeking structure in a different industry and more analytical work. That role being the most successful good partner in this regard.

- 3) Why do you want to work here? - It is critical that your response to this type of question demonstrates that you have a personal interest and passion for the role. Business and industry analysis can show that your response has substance. This is where having research that the company and the role will be your "fit". You need to demonstrate that this is not just another interview - but that this is your dream.

Example: Your company has a reputation for being an industry leader and your structure makes me understand a team oriented, analytical and progressive staff environment as well align with my own values. The role that offers the exciting opportunity to work closely with senior management, to be successful in an environment of a variety of new products offers a really great opportunity for me.
