Exploring Communication Theory Kory Floyd, Paul Schrodt, Larry A. Erbert, Angela Trethewey, 2017-06-14 This text presents and explains theories in communication studies from the epistemological perspectives of the researchers who use them Rather than representing a specific theoretical paradigm social scientific interpretive or critical the author team presents the three major paradigms in one text each writing in his or her area of expertise Every theory is explained in a native voice from a position of deep understanding and experience improving clarity for readers The text also provides insights on using communication theory to address real life challenges Considering that theories are developed to guide scholarly research more than to provide practical advice this feature of the book helps students create realistic expectations for what theories can and cannot do and makes clear that many theories can have practical applications that students can use to their advantage in everyday life Offering a comprehensive exploration of communication theories through multiple lenses Exploring Communication Theory provides an integrated approach to studying communication theory and to demonstrating its application in the world of its readers Online resources also accompany the text For students practice quizzes to review key concepts for instructors an instructor s manual featuring chapter outlines lists of key terms discussion questions suggested further readings and both in class and out of class exercises as well as lecture slides and sample essay test questions Communication in a Civil Society Shelley D. Lane,Ruth Anne Abigail,John Gooch,2016-04-28 Uncivil acts and messages too often color our experience with others Communication in a Civil Society offers an alternative way to teach and learn about communication Every chapter focuses on communication based on respect restraint and ethical choices Communicating with Our Families Jill K. Burk,Maryl R. McGinley,Joel S. Ward,2022-07-12 Communicating with Our Families Continuity Interruption and Transformation examines how communication technologies are shaping childhood parenthood and families by exploring topics such as parental loneliness family storytelling family technology rules mindful technology usage multigenerational communication and community The scholars in this volume work from a human communication perspective and use various research modes of inquiry including quantitative qualitative and interpretive methods Perhaps the most significant question implied by our contributors in this volume is whether the introduction of new communication technologies will fundamentally alter familial forms and if those new groupings that emerge will resemble what has been generally assumed for several millennia Race and the Senses Christopher Brown,Sachi Sekimoto,2020-06-08 In Race and the Senses Sachi Sekimoto and Christopher Brown explore the sensorial and phenomenological materiality of race as it is felt and sensed by the racialized subjects Situating the lived body as an active affective and sensing participant in racialized realities they argue that race is not simply marked on our bodies but rather felt and registered through our senses They illuminate the sensorial landscape of racialized world by combining the scholarship in sensory studies phenomenology and intercultural communication Each chapter elaborates on the felt bodily sensations of race racism and racialization that illuminate how somatic labor plays a significant role in the construction of racialized relations of sensing Their thought provoking theorizing about the relationship between race and the senses include race as a sensory assemblage the phenomenology of the racialized face and tongue kinesthetic feelings of blackness as well as the possibility of cross racial empathy Race is not merely socially constructed but multisensorially assembled engaged and experienced Grounded in the authors experiences one as a Japanese woman living in the USA and the other as an African American man from Chicago Race and the Senses is a book about how we feel the racialized world into being Films as Rhetorical Texts Janice D. Hamlet,2019-11-13 Films as Rhetorical Texts Cultivating Discussion about Race Racism and Race Relations presents critical essays focusing on select commercial films and what they can teach us about race racism and race relations in America The films in this volume are critically assessed as rhetorical texts using various aspects and components of critical race theory recognizing that race and racism are intricately ingrained in American society Contributors argue that by viewing and evaluating culture centered films often centered around race and critically analyzing them faculty and students can promote the opportunity for genuine open discussions about race racism and race relations in the United States specifically in the higher education classroom Scholars of film studies media studies race studies and education will find this book particularly useful Looseleaf

Communication Matters and Connect Access Card Kory Floyd,2014-07-02 Communication Matters Because great communicators are made not born Through Communication Matters highly interactive program students learn that our instincts aren't as good as we think they are and develop the skills needed to become effective communicators The program prompts students to question their assumptions helps them to move beyond their personal daily communication experiences and challenges them to think critically about why and how they communicate in the ways they do Connect for Communication Matters Second Edition reflects our increasingly diverse interactive and digital world by using hands on features Through an interactive eBook a suite of student videos for public speaking and dynamic online activities students are urged to consider which choices are likely to be effective and which less so LearnSmart McGraw Hill's adaptive learning system assesses students knowledge of course content and maps out personalized study plans for success The result Students are able to internalize core communication principles adapt their communication behavior more effectively and actively apply those strategies to all aspects of their lives Connect is the only integrated learning system that empowers students by continuously adapting to deliver precisely what they need when they need it and how they need it so that your class time is more engaging and effective Crossing the Racial Divide Kathleen Korgen,2002-12-30 In interviews in cities and towns across the United States from New York to Los Angeles and from Madison to Dallas members of 40 black and white pairs of friends reflect on how they became friends how racial issues are addressed and how their friendships have influenced their views and in some cases their actions Utilizing a sociological framework to examine the friendships Korgen offers readers a rare glimpse into an even rarer phenomenon and sheds light on important aspects of race relations in America How do close friendships between blacks and whites develop Why are cross racial friendships so rare How do these friendships navigate the issue of race Crossing the Racial Divide answers these questions through a lively discussion of the problems and issues and through the voices of members of cross racial friendships In interviews in cities and towns across the United States from New York to Los Angeles and from Madison to Dallas members of 40 black and white pairs of friends reflect on how they became friends how racial issues are addressed and how their friendships have influenced their views and in some cases their actions Utilizing a sociological framework to examine the friendships Korgen offers readers a rare glimpse into an even rarer phenomenon and sheds light on important aspects of race relations in America Challenging both the traditional notion that blacks and whites are opposites and the increasingly popular notion of colorblindness the author reveals that while close black white friendships follow the concept of homophily we cannot just wish away the tensions and disparities that exist between most white and black Americans Cross racial friendships provide a unique perspective that makes racism and racial separation both more visible and more vulnerable Put into sociological context the stories revealed in this book make evident the institutional barriers existing between most black and white Americans and offer insight into the means to dismantle them ICA Newsletter International Communication Association,1999 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Business and Professional Communication Kory Floyd,Peter W. Cardon,2020 Students preparing to succeed in today s workplace require solid training in communication skills and principles as well as experience applying them in realistic professional contexts In Business and Professional Communication Kory Floyd and Peter Cardon incorporate substantial business world experience throughout the text s principles examples and activities They ensure that the theories concepts and skills most relevant to the communication discipline are fully represented The result is a program that helps students understand and apply communication skills in both their personal and professional lives The People First feature presents students with realistic scenarios that are sensitive discomfoting or tricky to manage It then teaches students how to navigate those situations effectively This gives students concrete skills for preserving relationships with others as they encounter these difficult conversations Unique to the market this text includes a dedicated chapter focused on perspective taking covering the processes of person perception common perceptual errors the self serving bias and the fundamental attribution error the self concept and the processes of image management This equips students to understand and pay attention to the perspectives of others Business and Professional Communication also includes a dedicated chapter focused on career communication encouraging students to engage in networking and to consider the priorities and points of view of others as they seek employment and begin to interact professionally Why Communication Matters H.
