Conflict Management In Divided Societies Theories And Practice:

Conflict Management in Divided Societies Stefan Wolff, Christalla Yakinthou, 2013-03 This textbook takes a multi perspective approach to the study of conflict management in divided societies The philosophies underpinning constitutional design are clearly explained including power sharing centripetalism power dividing and territorial self governance The actors and processes involved and the practicalities of the settlement process are covered in conceptual and theoretical contributions that include the evolution of diplomacy in peacemaking The book ends with empirical case studies that explore the realities on the ground by specialists drawing on their experience of working in conflict zones Nationalism and Conflict Management Eric Taylor Woods, Robert Schertzer, Eric Kaufmann, 2013-09-13 Ethno national conflict is one of the central issues of modern politics Despite the emergence of approaches to managing it from nation building to territorial autonomy in recent years the application of these approaches has been uneven Old conflicts persist and new ones continually emerge The authors of this book contend that what is needed to drive forward the theory and practice of ethno national conflict management is a more nuanced understanding of ethnicity and nationalism The book addresses this issue by linking theories of ethnicity and nationalism to theories of conflict management Its contributors share a common goal of demonstrating that a nuanced understanding of ethnicity and nationalism can beneficially inform conflict management in theory and practice To do so they analyse both hot and cold conflict zones as well as cases that have been important in the development of the most widely used conflict management models The book is aimed at those interested in the theory and practice of ethno national conflict management as well as the study of ethnicity and nationalism It is well suited for undergraduate and advanced research students experts and policy makers This book was originally published as a special issue of Commonwealth and Comparative Politics Decentralisation and the Management of Ethnic Conflict Aisling Lyon, 2015-10-30 Ethnic inequalities in divided societies can exacerbate social divisions and lead to conflict Reducing these inequalities could have a de escalating effect yet there is little consensus on how this can be achieved most effectively and sustainably Decentralisation is held to improve inter ethnic relations in multi ethnic states by allowing territorially concentrated groups greater autonomy over their own affairs and the case of the Republic of Macedonia offers an example of the successes and failings of decentralisation Decentralisation and the Management of Ethnic Conflict offers new insight into the dynamics of conflict management through decentralisation using an in depth case study of decentralisation in the Republic of Macedonia between 2005 and 2012 Guided by the concept of horizontal inequalities the volume identifies the factors which influenced the decision to devolve responsibilities to the municipalities after 2001 Taking an integrative approach to studying the political administrative and fiscal dimensions of decentralisation and its implementation the book investigates whether these institutional reforms have indeed contributed to the reduction of inequalities between Macedonia s ethnic groups and what the obstacles were in those areas in which decentralisation has not reached its full potential The key lesson of the Macedonian case is that attempts to solve internal self determination conflicts through decentralisation will fail if local self governance exists only in form but not in substance This book contributes to a more nuanced understanding of the challenges facing different forms of decentralisation in the long term and as such represents a significant contribution to Conflict Studies Development Studies and Political Science more generally The European Union's Approach to Conflict Resolution Laurence Cooley,2018-10-09 This book investigates and explains the European Union s approach to conflict resolution in three countries of the Western Balkans Bosnia and Herzegovina Macedonia and Kosovo In doing so it critically interrogates claims that the EU acts as an agent of conflict transformation in its engagement with conflict affected states The book argues contrary to the assumptions of much of the existing literature that rather than seeking the transformation of conflicts the EU pursues a more conservative strategy based on the regulation of conflict through the promotion of institutional mechanisms such as consociational power sharing and decentralisation Drawing on discourse analysis of documents speeches and interviews conducted by the author with European Union officials and policy makers in Brussels and the case study countries the book offers a theoretically grounded methodologically rigorous and empirically detailed analysis of EU policy preferences of the ideas that underpin them and of how those preferences are legitimised This book will be of key interest to scholars students and practitioners interested in ethnic conflict and conflict resolution the politics of the Balkans and the external and foreign policies of the EU Federal Solutions to Ethnic Problems Liam D. Anderson,2013 This book examines how federal systems can be designed to manage ethnic conflict in divided societies Using Iraq as a case study the author evaluates six distinct approaches the underlying reasons why one may be more suitable than other and how these apply to the current situation Pluralist Constitutions in Southeast Asia Jaclyn L Neo,Ngoc Son Bui,2019-04-04 This book examines the presence of ethnic religious political and ideational pluralities in Southeast Asian societies and how their respective constitutions respond to these pluralities Countries covered in this book are Brunei Cambodia Indonesia Laos Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam The chapters examine first the range of pluralist constitutional values and ideas embodied in the constitutions secondly the pluralist sources of constitutional norms thirdly the design of constitutional structures responding to various pluralities and fourthly the construction and interpretation of bills of rights in response to existing pluralities The pluralist constitution is thus one that recognises internal pluralities within society and makes arrangements to accommodate rather than eliminate these pluralities Conflict Analysis Matthew Bernard Levinger,2013 Conflict Analysis Understanding Causes Unlocking Solutions is a guide for practitioners seeking to prevent deadly conflict or mitigate political instability This handbook integrates theory and practice and emphasizes the importance of analyzing the causes of peace as well as the causes of conflict It stresses that conflict analysis is a social as well as an intellectual process helping practitioners translate analysis into effective action Political Science ,2014 Conflict Resolution Training in Divided Societies Ronald J. Peace Accords and Ethnic Conflict K. M. De Silva, S. W. R. de A. Samarasinghe, 1993 Accords and treaties figure prominently in conflict resolution in societies destabilized by ethnic conflict This volume uses examples from India Sri Lanka Canada Cyprus and the Sudan to examine factors that prompt the making of accords and explores why and how in most cases the accords do not hold for very long Experienced negotiators have been teamed up with leading academics to provide a thorough comparative perspective The book includes the texts of key accords and treaties

Community Conflicts in Nigeria Onigu Otite, Isaac Olawale Albert, 1999

Political Settlements in Divided Societies Christalla Yakinthou, 2009-07-23 The problem of how political settlements are to be adopted in divided or post conflict societies is one which is receiving growing attention as the international community increasingly views protracted intra state conflicts as carrying trans national consequences It is not only finding the most appropriate kind of political settlement that is so problematic but also how to reach the point where those proposals are adopted Cyprus provides an illuminating case study of these problems The object of many years of scrutiny and multiple sustained efforts at resolution of its division means that Cyprus can reveal a good deal about what impedes and what assists progress towards a settlement The experiences of Cyprus therefore can offer lessons to both practitioners working on political solutions for divided and post conflict societies and to academics and others seeking to understand how conflicts become intractable where the primary impediments lie to successful constitutional architecture and how those impediments can be overcome The book offers answers for why political leaders in Cyprus have been so unwilling to adopt a power sharing solution In so doing it offers new material for the wider debate regarding constitutional design and adoption of peace plans in divided societies on the politics of institutionalising peace
