

Tips for positive sleep hygiene

Regularity: To train your body into a regular rhythm, go to bed and get up at the same time every day - even on weekends!

Avoid caffeine before bed: coffee, tea, cola drinks and even chocolate are all stimulants that interfere with the ability to fall asleep.

Bathtime: a hot bath 1-2 hours before bed can be helpful in raising your body temperature, causing you to feel sleepy as it lowers again.

Exercise: Regular exercise is a good idea to help with sleep but try not to do strenuous exercise in the four hours before bed time.

Natural light: Getting as much daylight as possible helps the body to produce melatonin, a natural hormone that promotes sleep.

Sleep when sleepy: Only try to sleep when you actually feel tired, rather than spending too much time lying awake in bed.

No naps!: Try to avoid taking naps throughout the day to ensure you are tired at bedtime.

Sleep diary: Use a written sleep diary or an app to monitor your sleep; you might be able to identify patterns and what helps

Eat right: A healthy balanced diet will help you sleep well, but timing is important - a heavy meal soon before bed can interrupt sleep.

MenoWars Fiona Clark,2025-09-25 First we were told we all needed to have HRT to remain interesting for our husbands Then we were told it was going to give us cancer and put us in an early grave Next we were told HRT was safe and we had to take it or we d all end up with crippling brain fog quitting our jobs and descending into dementia as the economy collapsed around us On the other side of the fence are those who argue that menopause is natural it doesn t need treating and a cold water swim could fix everything No wonder we re more confused than ever Why has this happened What does the evidence say

MenoWars explains why menopause is such a political hot potato taking into account the history of gender bias in health and health research the void and how it s filled and what the evidence actually says It answers questions like will HRT prevent dementia what you can do help your brain will HRT prevent heart disease what you can do to help your heart and much more MenoWars explains the silent changes you can t see and which need to be sorted and why Importantly it not only shows why we re arguing it outlines where the science is heading so we can live longer better healthier lives in perimenopause and throughout the decades we spend in post menopause
