Managing Content Marketing: The Real-World Guide for Creating Passionate Subscribers to Your Brand Robert Rose,Joe Pulizzi,2011-08-01

Perhaps no function in the business organization has been as fundamentally revolutionized as marketing. The social and mobile Web has completely changed the speed, efficiency, and ease with which consumers can engage with each other and has had a tremendous impact on brands. This new engagement of the consumer with keen awareness of their relationships and emerging social networks now correlates to every single aspect of our business. So yes, marketing has changed. The question is what are we going to do about it: Content and Subscription. The New Marketing Opportunity. As growth of the social and mobile Web changes the methods of communication, the old lines of hierarchical relationships between business and consumer blur substantially. As consumers publish and share their opinions, both good and bad, with increasing ease, they can become more persuasive than even the company's voice itself. Every one of these groups becomes a powerful ally or enemy depending on what we do. All of them will be constantly in flux, developing levels of trust and requiring varying levels of transparency to filter content and determine buying decisions. They will expand and collapse with great velocity, and it will all happen with or without our participation. Content marketing has been around for hundreds of years. But the application of a specific strategic process around content marketing is still new. The amount of budget that is allotted for new content creation is going to become a significant part of your new media budget. And subject matter experts in the organization are going to have new responsibilities. It's a transformative new process, and it won't happen overnight. But it can and should happen. Get Content, Get Customers showed us the light, but there's been no book to show us the way. There is an ancient Chinese proverb that says a crisis is simply an opportunity riding the dangerous wind. As marketers, we now have the opportunity to develop new processes with our marketing strategy, power them with content, and ultimately keep that wind at our back. Successful programs will focus on creating a thoughtful strategy and process to foster this content marketing. This book is a detailed how-to to build that successful content marketing process. Content

Marketing Gavin Turner,2019-05-17

If you want to create content like BuzzFeed that turns a simple click into a money-making sale for your business, then keep reading. Did you know in just the first 60 seconds of your day, 87,500 tweets are posted on Twitter, 3.8 million Google searches are typed, 1 million people are logging into Facebook? That's how big content is being consumed each minute every single day of people's lives. As the saying goes, Content is King. Now the big question is how can you leverage content to make people buy from you? This is where the newest marketing approach, known as Content Marketing, comes in. Content Marketing uses strategic planning and posting content that sells and engages your audience, which spells the difference between customer retention and missed sales. All you need to know is how to shoot your message like an arrow that your audience can't take off their chest. Gary Vee breaks it down: You need to spend all of your time and energy on creating something that actually brings value to the people you're asking for money. According to Pew Research, 77% of US Adults go online daily. This means you can reach 77% of a whole nation in one day if you know how. It is time to discover the right roadmap to present your content and get the exposure you need to turn even a farmers shop into a worldwide company like Whole Foods Market. Author Gavin Turner knows what your audience wants and soon you will too.
