

On autumn day, the writer Franz Kafka and Dora Diamant strolled through a park in Berlin. Kafka held a basket filled with potatoes and a jar of milk. His hat was set at an angle and he walked deep in thought about two things: a story he was struggling to finish, and lunch.

Kafka and the Doll Larissa Theule,2021-03-09 Based on a true story about Franz Kafka Inspired by a true story Kafka and the Doll recounts a remarkable gesture of kindness from one of the world s most bewildering and iconic writers In the fall of 1923 Franz Kafka encountered a distraught little girl on a walk in the park She d lost her doll and was inconsolable Kafka told her the doll wasn t lost but instead traveling the world and having grand adventures And to reassure her Kafka began delivering letters from the doll to the girl for weeks The legend of Kafka and the doll has captivated imaginations for decades as it reveals the playful and compassionate side of a man known for his dark and brooding tales Kafka and the Doll is a testament to living life to the fullest and to the life changing power of storytelling

Kafka and the Traveling Doll Jordi Sierra i Fabra,2019 One year before his death Frank Kafka had an extraordinary experience Having a walk through Steglitz Park in Berlin he found a little girl crying heartbroken She had lost her doll To calm her down Frank introduced himself as the Dolls s Postman and told the little girl that the doll was away on a trip but had sent a letter for her that will be delivered by himself the following day For three weeks Frank focused exclusively on the doll s letters that he handed on every day to the girl Nobody has ever known who that little girl was and what happened with the letters

Children See Dead People Rob Armstrong, One of the most famous lines in movie history is I see dead people uttered by a young boy Is there any reason to believe that children can see the dead Do they have spooky powers denied to adults Do they grow out of these powers as they reach puberty Do they forget that they once interacted with the dead One study says that by age seven 65 percent of children have had an imaginary friend Are these imaginary friends actually spirits Do children have the dead as their imaginary playmates They re not imaginary at all They re real but they re dead Children are natural mediums psychics and necromancers They can channel the other world Is the poltergeist phenomenon caused by children s imaginary friends Can imaginary friends operate externally to children s minds Are some children in cahoots with spirits There is nothing more fascinating than the psychic abilities of children and the astonishing thing that eventually happens to them which suppresses their paranormal powers in order to allow them to enter the normal world the adult world What would you prefer to remain a child all your life and have paranormal powers or to become an adult and sacrifice your paranormal powers Nature has made this a tradeoff Do you want to be Peter Pan who can fly but can never grow up or do you want to join the adults and have adult fun and also adult responsibilities Why do children lose their natural powers Is it possible to get these powers back Can adults recover their lost paranormal abilities the abilities which society warned them as children never to play with It s always dangerous to play with fire It s even more dangerous to ignore your natural fire Isn t it time to light up your life
