Trending Side Hustles Explained 15210:

Pittsburgh and the Appalachians Joseph L. Scarpaci, 2010-06-15 Few American cities reflect the challenges and promise of a twenty first century economy better than Pittsburgh and its surrounding region Once a titan of the industrial age Pittsburgh flourished from the benefits of its waterways central location and natural resources bituminous coal to fire steel furnaces salt and sand for glass making gas oil and just enough ore to spark an early iron industry Today like many cities located in the manufacturing triangle that stretches from Boston to Duluth to St Louis Pittsburgh has made the transition to a service based economy Pittsburgh and the Appalachians presents a collection of eighteen essays that explore the advantages and disadvantages that Pittsburgh and its surrounding region face in the new global economy from the perspectives of technology natural resources workforce and geography It offers an extensive examination of the processes and factors that have transformed much of industrial America during the past half century and shows how other cities can learn from the steps Pittsburgh has taken through redevelopment green space acquisition air and water quality improvement cultural revival and public private partnerships to create a more livable economically viable region for future populations

Communities of Resistance and Resilience in the Post-Industrial City Daniel Holland, 2024-08-01 This book is about the grassroots community revitalization movement in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania and Lyon France between 1980 and 2010 an extension of the post WWII civil rights campaign that is rarely considered It tells the story of residents attempts to improve their communities through social capital or people power In positive ways citizens created vibrant attractive neighborhoods But their actions also generated unintended consequences such as high real estate prices and minority displacement that threatened to unravel their hard work Communities of Resistance and Resilience is an ethnographic survey that relies on oral histories archival research on the ground site surveys and the author s personal experience as a neighborhood reinvestment practitioner for more than 30 years It brings to life stories that would otherwise remain obscured such as the lingering impact of the March for Equality and Against Racism organized in Lyon in 1983 and the formation of the Pittsburgh Community Reinvestment Group in Pittsburgh in 1988 both of which launched national movements This is of great use to scholars of transatlantic history as well as a general audience interested in modern social movements in the United States and France
