Why We Broke Up Daniel Handler, Maira Kalman, 2011-12-19 Min Green and Ed Slaterton have broken up so Min is writing Ed a letter and giving him a box Inside the box is why they broke up A movie ticket from their first date a comb from the motel room they shared and every other memento collected over the course of a giddy intimate heartbreaking relationship Item after item is illustrated and accounted for and then the box like a girlfriend will be dumped Why We Broke Up is a sincere and moving portrait of first love first heartbreak and all the firsts in between Min's smart sharp devastatingly honest voice is one of the most memorable in contemporary young adult literature

Teaching Comics Through Multiple Lenses Crag Hill, 2016-08-05 Building off the argument that comics succeed as literature rich complex narratives filled with compelling characters interrogating the thought provoking issues of our time this book argues that comics are an expressive medium whose moves structural and aesthetic may be shared by literature the visual arts and film but beyond this are a unique art form possessing qualities these other mediums do not Drawing from a range of current comics scholarship demonstrating this point this book explores the unique intelligence s of comics and how they expand the ways readers engage with the world in ways different than prose or film or other visual arts Written by teachers and scholars of comics for instructors this book bridges research and pedagogy providing instructors with models of critical readings around a variety of comics

Gender(ed) Identities Tricia Clasen, Holly Hassel, 2016-08-25 This volume brings together diverse cross disciplinary scholarly voices to examine gender construction in children's and young adult literature It complements and updates the scholarship in the field by creating a rich cohesive examination of core questions around gender and sexuality in classic and contemporary texts By providing an expansive treatment of gender and sexuality across genres eras and national literature the collection explores how readers encounter unorthodox as well as traditional notions of gender It begins with essays exploring how children's and YA literature construct communities formed by gender ethnicity sexuality and in face to face and virtual spaces Section II's central focus is how gendered identities are formed unpacking how texts for young readers ranging from Amish youth periodicals to the blockbuster Divergent series trace reproduce and shape gendered identity socialization In section III the essential literary function of translating trauma into narrative is addressed in classics like Anne of Green Gables and Pollyanna as well as more recent works Section IV's focus on sexuality and romance encompasses fiction and nonfiction works examining how children's and young adult literature can serve as a regressive progressive and transgressive site for construction meaning about sex and romance Last Section IV offers new readings of paratextual features in literature for children from the classic tale of Cinderella to contemporary illustrated novels The key achievement of this volume is providing an updated range of multidisciplinary and methodologically diverse analyses of critically and commercially successful texts contributing to the scholarship on children s and YA literature gender sexuality and women s studies and a range of other disciplines
