Introduction

Why Do Bible Study?

The Bible is Inspired by God

All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness (2 Timothy 3:16)

The word "inspiration" in 2 Timothy 3:16 is in the original Greek theopneustos, which literally means "God-breathed." For Scripture to be breathed by God requires that it originated from God's breath or that it is the Word of God. Indeed, the term "Word of God" is used synonymously with the Scriptures throughout the Bible (e.g. John 1:14).

The Mechanics of Inspiration

There are numerous theories of how inspiration took place, including the following:

- Verbal inspiration – Human authors were inspired in such a way by God so the exact way that a given thought or idea/feeling was conveyed by natural process is infallible.
- Special inspiration – Human authors themselves are inspired by God in the same way God inspires any Christian today through the ministry of the Holy Spirit.
- Conceptual inspiration – God inspired human authors with the general concepts of the message, but left the words and details to the author.
- Verbal inspiration – God inspired human authors with each word, representing every idea.
- Dictated dictation – Human authors just took dictation from God as he spoke.

The best description of the process is found in 2 Peter 1:21, as he describes the process of prophesy being provided to human authors:

For as prophesy was never made by will or by human will, but was moved by the stable Spirit speaking from God (2 Peter 1:21)

Inspiration means, then, that the decision to write is given from God, the human authors were used to speak as from God in the Holy Spirit control their thought, their utterances, their decisions, as if in the same utter speech. Furthermore, the utterances reflect inspiration, as if not a divine origin. Natural inspiration would mean the scriptures had no more authority than any "writing" coming from a man, which would contradict the authority attributed to Scriptures by Jesus and Paul.

This based on both conceptual and verbal inspiration. Both suggest that human authors were involved in the writing, and that the individual permission and will of the authors were brought to the process. However, God controlled the human authors to write, and the utterances were
