Interior Colour Schemes To Inspire The Interior Designer:

Colour Design Janet Best, 2017-06-08 Colour Design Theories and Applications Second Edition provides information on a broad spectrum of colour subjects written by seasoned industry professionals and academics. It is a multidisciplinary book that addresses the use of colour across a range of industries with a particular focus on textile colouration. Part One deals with the human visual system, colour perception and colour psychology, while Part Two focuses on the practical application of colour in design, including specifically in textiles and fashion. Part Three covers cultural and historical aspects of colour, as well as recent developments addressing areas such as dyes and pigments, architecture, colour theory, virtual reality, games, colour printing, website development and sustainability. This revised, expanded and updated edition reflects recent technological developments and new industry priorities. Bringing together the science of colouration and the more artistic elements of design, this book supports students, academics and industry professionals in developing a deep knowledge of colour use. It will also be an important reference for those involved in textile dyeing, design and manufacture. Provides a comprehensive review of the issues surrounding the use of color in textiles. Discusses the application of color across a wide range of industries, supporting interdisciplinary knowledge and research. Offers a revised, expanded and updated look that reflects the rise of new technology and industry priorities.

Chinese Art Objects, Collecting, and Interior Design in Twentieth-Century Britain

Helen Glaister, 2022-08-26 This book explores the relationship between collecting Chinese ceramics, interior design and display in Britain through the eyes of collectors, designers and tastemakers during the years leading to, during and following the Second World War. The Ionides Collection of European style Chinese export porcelain forms the nucleus of this study, defined by its design hybridity, offering insights into the agency of Chinese porcelain in diverse contexts from seventeenth century Batavia to twentieth century Britain, raising questions about notions of Chineseness, Britishness and identity politics across time and space. Through the biographies of the collectors, this book highlights the role of collecting Chinese art objects, particularly porcelain, in the construction of individual and group identities. Social networks linking the Ionides to agents and dealers, auctioneers and museum specialists bring into focus the dynamics of collecting during this period, the taste of the Ionides and their self-fashioning as collectors. The book will be of interest to scholars working in the fields of art history, history of collections, interior design, Chinese studies and material culture studies.
