Higher Education Leadership Strategy in the Public Affairs Triumvirate Jeffrey W. Goltz, 2020-02-20 This book provides a comprehensive approach for colleges rethinking their community policy connections From a pracademic perspective it introduces a new paradigm for contemporary college and community connections through the evolution of research scholarship and experience and the application of the Public Affairs discipline from Higher Education Leadership The book explains how the public affairs forces of Community Organization and Administration offer a unique combination of concepts and theory that can transform practice develop innovation strengthen communities and transform lives through a college partnering in a variety of community projects The book s defined ethical composition institutes leadership in the public realm within the Public Affairs Triumvirate and its discussion of the science to service to philosophy will advance higher education strategy scholarship creating new ideas for how academia and communities can create sustained connections and partnerships for solving problems in any community Black Administrators in Higher Education Terence Hicks, Lemuel Watson, 2018-08-24 Black Administrators in Higher Education Autoethnographic Explorations and Personal Narratives presents to the reader a group of administrators from predominantly white and historically black institutions from both four year and two year institutions Through the lenses of autoethnography and personal narrative studies this extraordinary edited volume by two former deans of education provide the audience with cutting edge research findings on a variety of topics relative to black administrators working in higher education Interrogation of the Fire Service: A Leadership Factor Akwasi M. Maru, 2017-09-11 What are some issues facing the fire service What is causing firefighter deaths What are some training challenges in the fire service How can fire service leadership be improved What is the future of fire service Akwasi Maru interrogates the fire service through a series of questions He then provides answers based on quantitative and qualitative data The fire service has many issues facing it today such as firefighters risk of cancer yet the number one cause of firefighter s death is not cancer Fire Departments from around the country are laying off firefighters and closing fire stations but how do this affect response time and civilian deaths Training divisions lack funds and staffing to train personnel effectively Maru explains how the leadership of officers and chiefs could blind their decisions due to their personal beliefs such as sexism racism narcissism the white shirt syndrome and their inability to adapt to change With all the current issues What is the future of the Fire Service Leading Successfully in Asia Kim Cheng Patrick Low, 2017-12-27

This book examines the essence of leadership its characteristics and its ways in Asia through a cultural and philosophical lens Using Asian proverbs and other quotes it discusses leadership issues and methods in key Asian countries including China India Japan Kazakhstan Malaysia and Singapore It also explores the leadership styles of various great Asian political and corporate leaders Further it investigates several unique Asian philosophies such as Buddhism Guan Yin Confucianism Ta Mo Chinese Animal zodiac signs Hindu Gods the Samurai the Bushido Spirit and Zen in the context of leadership mastery and excellence Offering numerous examples of a potpourri of the skills and insights needed to be a good if not a great leader this practical action oriented book encourages readers to think reflect and act Women in Management Alan T. Belasen,2017-04-07 This book presents a realistic perspective on the paradoxes employees face when navigating work and personal responsibilities for career success The author answers the critical question of how to achieve sustainable and rewarding work life integration from a perspective of both and rather than either or While most books focus on a fragmented hyper effective view of women and leadership this book advances the need for an integrated approach Its Competing Values Framework acts as an organizing model that aligns personal competency with organizational capability helping readers to identify important leadership roles and competencies break societal barriers and choose the right set of behaviors to fit their personal and professional goals In chapter text boxes provide personal insight from real employees both entering and established in leadership positions offering a varied perspective on the challenges and resolutions available to women in management As men become more engaged with their families they too will find this book a useful tool Students in diversity management women and management career development leadership and organizational behavior classes will benefit from this realistic and sustainable alternative to the have it all model The Leadership Experience Richard L.
