 - d. A breaker is when a wave gets top-heavy and tips over.

3. _____. When people respect the law too much, they will follow it blindly. They will say that the majority has decided on this law and therefore I must obey it. They will not stop to consider whether or not the law is fair.
 - a. Some people say there is too little respect for the law, but I say there is too much respect for it.
 - b. Sometimes, a judge will decide that a law is unfair.
 - c. I believe that the majority of the people in this country do not understand what it means to have respect for other people.
 - d. Most of the laws passed at the end of the twentieth century are fair laws.

4. Gary was a very distinguished looking man with a touch of gray at the temples. Even in his early fifties, he was still the one to turn heads. He enjoyed spending most of his time admiring his profile in the mirror. In fact, he considered his good looks to be his second most important asset in the world. The first, however, was money. He was lucky in this area, too, having been born into a wealthy family. _____. He loved the power his wealth had given him. He could buy whatever he desired, be that people, places, or things. Gary checked that mirror often and felt great delight with what he saw.
