From Empire to Federation in Eurasia Ivan Sablin,Egas Moniz Bandeira,2026-02-12 Bringing together nine chapters penned by experts in different area studies From Empire to Federation in Eurasia investigates how empires and postimperial regimes including the Ottoman Russian Habsburg Qing Republican Chinese Japanese and Siamese polities grappled with the challenges of diversity decentralization and self determination Paying attention to both vernacular models and external inspirations it reframes the study of state building beyond the Western European and North American contexts Federalist and autonomist designs served to restructure diversity management shifting from vertical imperial rights regimes to more horizontal arrangements often resulting in asymmetric federalism Although in many cases exclusionary nationalism and centralization triumphed the diverse visions reveal alternative trajectories of post imperial and post colonial transformations A major contribution to the global history of concepts institutions and political practices this book will appeal to scholars and students of global and international history political science and area studies including Eastern European Eurasian East Asian Middle Eastern and South Asian studies

General Studies & CSAT YCT Expert Team , 2023 UPPCS Pre General Studies CSAT Solved Papers 'How Best Do We Survive?' Kenneth McPherson,2012-12-06 This book traces the social and political history of the Muslims of south India from the later nineteenth century to Independence in 1947 and the contours that followed It describes a community in search of political survival amidst an ever changing climate and the fluctuating fortunes it had in dealing with the rise of Indian nationalism the local political nuances of that rise and its own changing position as part of the wider Muslim community in India The book argues that Partition and the foundation of Pakistan in 1947 were neither the goal nor the necessarily inescapable result of the growth of communal politics and sentiment and analyses the post 1947 constructions of events leading to Partition Neither the fact of Muslim communalism per se before 1947 nor the existence of separate Muslim electorates provide an explanation for Pakistan The book advances the theory that micro level studies of the operation of the former and the defence of the latter in British India can lead to a better understanding of the origins of communalism The book makes an important contribution to understanding and dealing with the complexities of communalism be it Hindu Muslim or Christian and its often tragic consequences
