

The main workspace is divided into two primary sections. On the left is a piano roll editor with a grid of notes and a track list on the far left. On the right is a mixer section with multiple channels, each featuring a fader, a solo button, and a mute button. The mixer also includes various processing modules like EQ and compression for each track.

The bottom section of the interface is a detailed mixer console. It features a series of vertical faders for each track, with corresponding knobs for panning and other parameters. The master section on the right includes a master fader, a master meter, and various output options. The interface is dark-themed with a professional, modern aesthetic.
