Fitzmaurice, Irma Taavitsainen, 2008-08-22 This volume represents a timely collective review and assessment of what it is we do when we do English historical pragmatics or historical discourse analysis The context for the volume is a critical assessment of the assumptions and practices defining the body of research conducted on the history of the English language from the perspective of historical pragmatics broadly construed The aim of the volume is to engage with matters of approach and method from different perspectives accordingly the contributions offer insights into earlier communicative practices registers and linguistic functions as gleaned from historical discourse The essays are grouped according to their orientations within the scope of the study of language and meaning in historical texts both literary and non literary The structure of the volume thus represents a critical convergence of traditions of reading texts and analyzing discourse and this in turn exposes key questions about the methods and the outcomes of such readings or analyses The volume contributes to the growing maturity of historical pragmatic research approaches as it exemplifies and extends the range of approaches and methods that dominate the research enterprise Contributors are prominent international scholars in the fields of linguistics literature and philology Dawn Archer Birte B s Laurel Brinton Gabriella Del Lungo Camiciotti James Fitzmaurice Susan Fitzmaurice Monika Fludernik Andreas Jucker Thomas Kohnen Ursula Lenker Lynne Magnusson and Irma Taavitsainen

Within Language, Beyond Theories (Volume III) Wojciech Malec, Marietta Rusinek, 2015-09-04 This is the third volume in the series Within Language Beyond Theories which focuses on current linguistic research that surpasses the limits of contemporary theoretical frameworks in order to gain new insights into the structure of the language system and to offer more explanatorily adequate accounts of linguistic phenomena taken from a number of the world s languages This book offers a collection of fourteen chapters organized into three parts and serves as a vehicle for the survey of new voices in discourse analysis pragmatics and corpus based studies Part I addresses a panorama of topics related to different discourse types such as talk show discourse multimodal discourse and everyday spoken discourse as well as written academic discourse Part II covers a range of highly controversial issues in pragmatics including the status of ad hoc concepts linguistically encoded meaning explicit content and the lexicographic treatment of modality Part III encompasses chapters which offer an overview of some of the recent phenomena covered in the area of corpus based research including the semantic functions of the temporal meanings of selected prepositions the diffusion of gerundive complements the institutionalization and de institutionalization of neologisms contextual factors in the placement of the adverb well the behaviour of the verb bake in copular constructions the syntactic flexibility of English idioms and their thematic composition tendencies in the formation of nouns in tabloids and the application of cluster analysis to the categorization of linguistic data

Drawing on recent advances in discourse analysis pragmatics and corpus based studies the majority of the issues discussed here are approached and investigated from a dual perspective While on the theoretical side an array of different theoretical models is surveyed in the analytical parts the practical applications of the models examined are tested against data from English both British and American Estonian and Polish The wide range of theoretical and empirical issues discussed in this book will help to provoke further academic discussion on the study of language in the areas of discourse analysis pragmatics and corpus based research

Corpus and Context Svenja Adolphs, 2008-04-25 Corpus and Context explores the relationship between corpus linguistics and pragmatics by discussing possible frameworks for analysing utterance function on the basis of spoken corpora The book articulates the challenges and opportunities associated with a change of focus in corpus research from lexical to functional units from concordance lines to extended stretches of discourse and from the purely textual to multi modal analysis of spoken corpus data Drawing on a number of spoken corpora including the five million word Cambridge and Nottingham Corpus of Discourse in English CANCODE funded by CUP c a specific speech act function is being explored using different approaches and different levels of analysis This involves a close analysis of contextual variables in relation to lexico grammatical and discursal patterns that emerge from the corpus data as well as a wider discussion of the role of context in spoken corpus research
