

Federalist Paper Number 10

After the Convention in Philadelphia it was far from certain that the states would agree to and ratify this new Constitution. As state conventions convened to decide whether to accept it or not a fierce publicity campaign was waged by both supporters (Federalists) and detractors (Anti-federalists).

The Federalists had the advantage in leadership with the likes of George Washington and Ben Franklin, two of the most eminent men of their day. They also had the support of the ablest political philosophers of their time: Alexander Hamilton, James Madison, and John Jay. These three men under the pseudonym "Publius" wrote a series of essays explaining the meaning and virtues of the Constitution. The collected essays are known today as The Federalist Papers.

4. Describe his argument for liberty. What metaphor does he employ?

5. What is the "first object of Government"?
