E-Cigarettes and the Comparative Politics of Harm Reduction Virginia Berridge, Ronald Bayer, Amy L. Fairchild, Wayne Hall, 2023-05-30 This open access book offers the first in depth study of the history and current debates surrounding electronic cigarettes comparing the UK US and Australia Since their introduction e cigarettes have been the subject of much public media and regulatory attention with discussion centring on whether these devices encourage or discourage smoking This study delves into the history of policymaking and institutions in three countries which have taken different approaches to the regulation of e cigarettes In the UK the tradition of harm reduction through nicotine has helped form a response which has endorsed e cigarettes though not without considerable controversy In contrast the US has a cessation only anti tobacco agenda and Australia has effectively banned e cigarettes This book argues that each country frames the long term use of nicotine differently and prioritises the health of different groups within the population of smokers or non smokers set against a broad backdrop of national responses to addiction By taking this comparative approach the authors explore the relationship between history evidence and policy in public health more widely
