Verbal-Visual Configurations in Postcolonial Literature Birgit Neumann,Gabriele Rippl,2020-04-23 Examining a range of contemporary Anglophone texts this book opens up postcolonial and transcultural studies for discussions of visibility and vision It argues that the preoccupation with visual practices in Anglophone literatures addresses the power of images vision and visual aesthetics to regulate cultural visibility and modes of identification in an unevenly structured world The representation of visual practices in the imaginative realm of fiction opens up a zone in which established orders of the sayable and visible may be revised and transformed In 12 chapters the book examines narrative fiction by writers such as Michael Ondaatje Derek Walcott Salman Rushdie David Dabydeen and NoViolet Bulawayo who employ word image relations to explore the historically fraught links between visual practices and the experience of modernity in a transcultural context Against this conceptual background the examination of verbal visual relations will illustrate how Anglophone fiction models alternative modes of re presentation that reflect critically on hegemonic visual regimes and reach out for new more pluralized forms of exchange

Plainwater Anne Carson,2015-03-18 The poetry and prose collected in Plainwater are a testament to the extraordinary imagination of Anne Carson a writer described by Michael Ondaatje as the most exciting poet writing in English today Succinct and astonishingly beautiful these pieces stretch the boundaries of language and literary form while juxtaposing classical and modern traditions Carson envisions a present day interview with a seventh century BC poet and offers miniature lectures on topics as varied as orchids and Ovid She imagines the muse of a fifteenth century painter attending a phenomenology conference in Italy She constructs verbal photographs of a series of mysterious towns and takes us on a pilgrimage in pursuit of the elusive and intimate anthropology of water Blending the rhythm and vivid metaphor of poetry with the discursive nature of the essay the writings in Plainwater dazzle us with their invention and enlighten us with their erudition 7.
