Duct Tape Selling John Jantsch, 2014-05-15 Many of the areas that salespeople struggle with these days have long been the domain of marketers according to bestselling author John Jantsch The traditional business model dictates that marketers own the message while sellers own the relationships But now Jantsch flips the usual sales approach on its head It's no longer enough to view a salesperson's job as closing Today's superstars must attract teach convert serve and measure while developing a personal brand that stands for trust and expertise In Duct Tape Selling Jantsch shows how to tackle a changing sales environment whether you're an individual or charged with leading a sales team You will learn to think like a marketer as you Create an expert platform Become an authority in your field Mine networks to create critical relationships within your company and among your clients Build and utilize your Sales Hourglass Finish the sale and stay connected Make referrals an automatic part of your process As Jantsch writes Most people already know that the days of knocking on doors and hard selling are over

But as I travel around the world speaking to groups of business owners marketers and sales professionals the number one question I m asked is What do we do now I ve written this book specifically to answer that question At the heart of it marketing and sales have become activities that no longer simply support each other so much as feed off of each other s activity Sales professionals must think and act like marketers in order to completely reframe their role in the mind of the customer

Triggers and Ranked Keyword Searches Over Virtual XML Views Feng Shao,2007 Current systems that publish XML relational data using XML views are passive in the sense that they can only respond to user initiated queries over the XML views Further existing systems do not support ranked keyword searches over virtual XML views which is important for exploring and retrieving information from large views In this dissertation we propose an XML view system whereby users can place active triggers on virtual unmaterialized XML views and can efficiently evaluate keyword search queries over such views In this architecture we present scalable and efficient techniques for processing triggers over nested views by leveraging existing support for SQL triggers over flat relations in commercial relational databases When evaluating the keyword search queries our approach exploits indices present on the base data and thereby avoids computing large parts of the view that are not relevant to the query results Another feature of the algorithm is that it supports top k results for queries over the virtual view and the resulting rank order is the same as if the view was materialized We have implemented our proposed techniques in the context of the Quark XML middleware system Our performance results indicate that our proposed techniques are a feasible approach to supporting triggers and ranked keyword searches over virtual XML views
