

Great Answers To Common Interview Questions

These Options.com staff members assist in answering interesting and important questions that are frequently asked during the interview process and answer common interview questions and that suggestions are from the best answers to your questions.

- Why do you believe you are suitable for the job? - This is your chance to sell yourself in a concise but clear manner. Don't repeat experiences and skills you possess that make you a candidate that does not fit and you do strong professional skills for interview preparation and a strong portfolio from your previous employer that is relevant for the job.

Example: From my understanding of the role I believe that my high volume accounts experience with customers and large corporate environment and my excellent analytical skills, along with my qualifications in that role because it is the challenging work, efficient to do, strong team orientation and focused approach that makes me ideal for your role.

- Why did you leave your last job? - Answer by not mentioning your last boss. Do not discuss your previous manager, the reason for that that is your response and make sure that you put your answer in context of what you are looking to achieve in your career as well as what they are looking for. Be careful about that message that your response can send - sometimes leaving roles for "more challenge" may suggest that you are not doing really well. Looking for more money can be seen to be the wrong direction and leaving because of a personal conflict several months later reflects poorly on you. If you were made redundant - always explain the full circumstances to ensure the story reflects reality.

Example: I had been with that company for a 2 years and progressed to the role of Accountant that exciting structure that I was. It was time to seek a new challenge and I am ideally seeking structure in a different industry and more analytical work. That role being the most interesting and good portfolio in this regard.

- Why do you want to work here? - This confirms that your response to the types of questions previously show that you have a personal interest in the role. Business and industry knowledge can show your response has substance. This is where having research that the company and the role will be good for you. This needs to demonstrate that this is not just another interview - but that this is your dream job.

Example: Your company has a reputation for being an industry leader and your structure makes me understand a team oriented, analytical and progressive staff environment as well as my skills with my own values. The role that offers the exciting opportunity to work closely with senior management, to be successful in my environment as a variety of new projects offers a variety of staff I am looking for.
