Welcome to the sort of History you definitely didn't get taught at school A Converging Post-War European Discourse

Thomas C. Hoerber, 2014-12-24 This book explores the most important components and contributing factors to the European integration process during the 1950s. It seeks to combine comparative politics and political history to examine core themes such as war experience, national security, military security, economic security, societal security, and research and education in three major European countries: i.e. France, Germany, and Britain. It analyses the references to the ensuing European integration process in national parliamentary debates, analyzing which national needs were thought European integration could cater to but also which national positions were seen as being compromised by a closer European commitment. The development of a national position on European integration and in turn the evolution of European concepts are considered by using discourse theory on parliamentary debates in France, Germany, and Britain. Parliamentary discourses are shown to be an ideal source for analyzing grand themes such as European integration because they cover all fundamental ideas they have to be public and open-ended deliberations which in turn determined the position of each country towards European integration. The great variety of positions reflected in the parliamentary discourse, in particular those which did not prevail and which did not find their way into the commonly accepted historical storyline of European integration, provide a greater comprehensiveness and a better understanding of the history of the European integration process. The Foundations of Europe Thomas Hörber, 2007-12-18 Thomas Hörber analyses the building process of European integration. He shows the parliamentary discourses of France, Germany, and Britain to be representative of the national position of these states towards the developing concept of Europe. He covers all key events and developments of the time which had an impact on the European integration process and provides an explanation for the convergence of national discourses towards a common Europe. This development was by no means a given and the analysis of parliamentary debates shows for the first time how vigorous the debates were on European integration in the 1950s and how despite setbacks, notably the failure of the European Defence Community, the discussion went in favour of integration. Gladstone, Churchill Lord Moran (Sir Charles Watson), 2006-02-16 The second edition in the landmark reissue of the diaries of Winston Churchill's doctor, devoted friend and confidant Lord Moran, presents a frank and intimate portrait of the Prime Minister from the tumultuous post-World War II years all the way up to his death in January 1965. In his unique position as a companion to Churchill throughout virtually his entire career as a statesman, Moran sheds new light on the controversies that precipitated Churchill's eventual fall from grace after the War, presenting an invaluable picture of a complicated, contradictory, individual, stubborn, defiant, prideful yet possessing an undeniable strength and nobility. Moran chronicles not only the key political events of Churchill's last twenty years: his legendary Iron Curtain speech, his triumphant return to power in 1951, and his ensuing role in the unfolding political landscape of the Cold War era, but also Churchill's place as a Nobel Prize-winning historian, voracious traveler and enigmatic father and husband What we get with the Churchill Diaries is an absolutely indispensable first hand document of one of the most towering historical figures of the 20th century The Churchill Biography, 1990 The Bookseller, 1917 Winston Churchill and the British Constitution Kevin Theakston, 2004 In Winston Churchill and the British Constitution Kevin Theakston uses a wealth of new research to shed light on the complexity and originality of Churchill's constitutional thinking offering the first detailed account of Churchill's impact on the British constitution during one of the longest and most extraordinary political careers in British history Dust jacket The Age of Churchill and Eden, 1940-1957 John Ramsden, 1995 Unemployment in Europe asks why European unemployment is so high and examines the policies adopted at local national and European level to tackle the problems It includes case studies of five major European cities with high unemployment Remembered Past John Lukacs, 2005 Remembered Past draws together Lukacs's diverse and wide ranging writings on a variety of interrelated topics The volume serves at once as an introduction to essential aspects of Lukacs's thought and as an indispensable compendium of his most enduring pieces many of which have until now been uncollected or located in out of print volumes Back cover Vienna Meets Berlin John Warren, 2005 The volume is based on papers given at the London Symposium Vienna Meets Berlin Culture in the Metropolis Between the Wars which took place at the Institute of Germanic Studies in December 2001 The book surveys the cultural links between Vienna and Berlin with a focus on the inter war years and some post 1945 continuities It includes a centenary tribute to Odon von Horvath and contributions on theatre film journalism the feuilleton in particular literature music and socio political issues Together the studies can be read as a narrative of interaction between the two capital cities The industrial and modern Berlin of the 1920s proves an irresistible magnet for many Viennese whose letters and journalism time and again reflect on the differences between the cities The year 1933 marks the political cut off point when in many cases exile becomes the predominant theme Twelve Cities: A Memoir Roy Jenkins, 2003-01-01 Roy Jenkins follows up Churchill with a book of a very different shape short and semi autobiographical but also full of the wit and erudition which made that book such a success Each of the twelve cities are described with a mixture of architectural interest topographical insight and personal anecdote Jenkins has three British cities Cardiff Birmingham and Glasgow Further afield there is Paris Brussels Bonn Berlin Naples and Barcelona From Lord Jenkins over a hundred visits to North America there emerge highly personal recollections of New York and Chicago Dublin so near to home and yet so distant makes up the dozen Twelve Cities is a fascinating and sparkling collection from one of our very finest writers The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, David Remnick, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, Rea Irvin, Roger Angell, 2002 Disarming Manhood David A.
