Winslow Boy:

The Winslow Boy Terence Rattigan, 1973 THE STORY What begins as a small incident ultimately grows into a cause celebre nearly shaking the foundations of the government The incident is simply that of a youngster in an English government school who is expelled for an alleged theft As LIFE, 1947-11-24 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today s people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Literature into Film Linda Costanzo Cahir, 2014-12-24 For most people film adaptation of literature can be summed up in one sentence The movie wasn t as good as the book This volume undertakes to show the reader that not only is this evaluation not always true but sometimes it is intrinsically unfair Movies based on literary works while often billed as adaptations are more correctly termed translations A director and his actors translate the story from the written page into a visual presentation Depending on the form of the original text and the chosen method of translation certain inherent difficulties and pitfalls are associated with this change of medium So often our reception of a book based movie has more to do with our expectations and reading of the literature than with the job that the movie production did or did not do Avoiding these biases and fairly evaluating any particular literary based film takes an awareness of certain factors Written with a formalistic rather than historical approach this work presents a comprehensive guide to literature based films establishing a contextual and theoretical basis to help the reader understand the relationships between such movies and the original texts as well as the reader s own individual responses to these productions To this end it focuses on recognizing and appreciating the inherent difficulties encountered when basing a film on a literary work be it a novel novella play or short story Individual chapters deal with the specific issues and difficulties raised by each of these genres providing an overview backed up by case studies of specific film translations Films and literary works receiving this treatment include The Unbearable Lightness of Being The Manchurian Candidate 1962 Lady Windemere s Fan by Oscar Wilde and Shakespeare s Henry V Interspersed throughout the text are suggestions for activities the film student or buff can use to enhance his or her appreciation and understanding of the films Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here ReelViews James Berardinelli, 2003 The popular film critic offers full length reviews of his choices for the best one thousand movies from the 1990s to today Literature of the 1940s: War, Postwar and 'Peace' Gill Plain, 2013-09-10 A groundbreaking re reading of the literary response to a decade of trauma and transformation This study undoes the customary division of the 1940s into the Second World War and after Instead it focuses on the thematic preoccupations that emerged from writers immersion in and resistance to the conflict Through seven chapters Documenting Desiring Killing Escaping Grieving Adjusting and Atomising the book sets middlebrow and popular writers alongside residual modernists and new voices to reconstruct the literary landscape of the period Detailed case
