Writing Your Christmas Song Literary Analysis

Using the Evidence and Analysis Already Completed

A literary analysis uses a close reading to examine how literary devices (or poetic devices specifically) are used to convey meaning in the text. In addition to the individual examination of literary devices, the essay will also address overall themes and tones of the text.

Introduction/Purpose:

1. Begin with a statement about the overall theme of the song you choose. Include author or source and song title. This essay includes a claim about what the song says or means.

Example: In the song "I Saw Three Kings", a traditional Carol from England, shows the excitement of arrival of Christmas and of how they felt both individually and jointly.

Christmas Song Literary Analysis Essay

A literary analysis uses a close reading to examine how literary devices (or poetic devices specifically) are used to convey meaning in the text. In addition to the individual examination of literary devices, the essay will also address overall themes and tones of the text.

Choose a Christmas or winter song that is long enough and has a variety of lyrics—not just repetition of the same or similar lyrics—in order to have enough material for effective analysis.
