

Why should we do stylistics?

To do stylistics is to explore language, and, more specifically, to explore creativity in language use. Doing stylistics thereby enriches our ways of thinking about language and, as observed, exploring language offers a substantial purchase on our understanding of (literary) texts. With the full array of language models at our disposal, an inherently illuminating method of analytic inquiry presents itself. This method of inquiry has an important reflexive capacity insofar as it can shed light on the very language system it derives from; it tells us about the 'rules' of language because it often explores texts where those rules are bent, distended or stretched to breaking point. Interest in language is always at the fore in contemporary stylistic analysis which is why you should never undertake to do stylistics unless you are interested in language.

Qur'anic Stylistics Hussein Abdul-Raof, 2004 Stylistic variation is the colourful manifestation of language It is an intriguing linguistic phenomenon that can take place at different levels of language as it has been found in Qur'anic genre Stylistic shift can occur within the sentence boundary at both the micro and the macro levels In the micro text stylistic variation occurs at the morpheme word and sentence levels However in the macro text stylistic change can occur at the macro textual level beyond the sentence boundary In other words stylistically different sentences are found at different texts far away from each other Stylistic variation mirrors language behaviour and the manipulation of the linguistic tools and strategies available to the text producer Stylistic variation in Qur'anic Arabic occurs for a good reason and is context and co-text sensitive Context and co-text are the linguistic habitat for stylistic shift The surrounding grammatical semantic and phonetic environment has a direct impact upon the linguistic behaviour of Qur'anic genre This is due to the fact that the text unfolds in a given context of situation Therefore the distinctive stylistic patterns are influenced by the contextual and co-textual factors A linguistic stylistic exploration of sentence patterns illuminates the reader's appreciation of the grammatical and semantic subtleties underpinning the distinct meanings of two stylistically different but structurally identical sentences A linguistic investigation of the stylistic patterns of language also unearths the underlying signification of two stylistically distinct sentences The present analysis attempts to provide an insight into the resourceful stylistic and linguistic strategies of Arabic The book sharpens up the reader's awareness of the exotic stylistic patterns that are semantically oriented These stylistic structures can be realized through various linguistic processes that are specific to Arabic The resourceful mechanism can be a useful linguistic tool to achieve various communicative functions with different semantic significations The present account of Qur'anic genre explores how grammatical acceptability and semantic syntax are interrelated to stylistic variation in Arabic This work provides an in depth explicated analysis of stylistic variation in Qur anic genre Language and Literature (general), 1831 Exploring the Language of Poems, Plays and Prose Mick Short, 2018-10-08 Exploring the Language of Poems Plays and Prose examines how readers interact with literary works how they understand and are moved by them Mick Short considers how meanings and effects are generated in the three major literary genres carrying out stylistic analysis of poetry drama and prose fiction in turn He analyses a wide range of extracts from English literature adopting an accessible approach to the analysis of literary texts which can be applied easily to other texts in English and in other languages A Stylistic Analysis of Selected Stories in Achebe's "Girls At War And Other Stories" Chidinma Dike, 2020-03-20 Seminar paper from the year 2020 in the subject Literature Africa language English abstract This study aims at carrying out a stylistic analysis of selected short stories from Achebe s Girls at War and other stories Stylistics a combination of style and literature is a discipline which has been approached in different ways by different scholars both in linguistic studies and literary studies it is a borderline discipline between linguistics and literature thus its definition varies based on the theory adopted For better understanding there is the need to explain what style is before defining the term stylistics Style is got from the Latin word Stilus which means a pointed instrument for writing on waxed tablets and has in modern times been associated with a way or manner of writing or speaking Otagburuagu et al 35 Style has also been defined as the description and analysis of the variability forms of linguistic items in actual language use It is the manner or mode of expressing one s thought in language A creative artist expresses his feeling thought ideas and vision through language and his unique way of using language to convey his feelings is what is called style E J Otagburuagu et al 2014 35 Leech and Michael in E J Otagburuagu et al 2014 define style as the linguistic characteristics of a particular text According to Otagburuagu et al Katie in her book A Dictionary of Stylistics 1989 classifies style into the following style as personal idiosyncrasy style as a technique of expression and style as the highest achievement of literature Stylistics has been defined as a study of the different styles that are present in either a given utterance or a written text or document Stylistics is derived from the word style and it concerns itself with the study of the techniques and manner in which people express their thought both in speech and writing Stylistics deals with a wide range of language varieties and styles that that are possible in creating different texts whether spoken or written monologue or dialogue formal or informal scientific or religious etc Stylistics unlike pragmatics that focuses on the what of a text concerns itself with the how and why of a text Leech in line with this defined stylistics as a linguistic approach to literature explaining the relation between language and artistic functions with motivating questions such as why and how more than what Forensic Stylistics Gerald R. McMenamin, 1993 Author specific linguistic patterns can be objectively described and often measured making author identification possible in many cases This work demonstrates the validity of this claim and addresses the use of stylistic analysis for author identification and meaning interpretation Modern Literary Theory, a Comparative

Introduction Ann Jefferson, David Robey, 1982 The aim of this book is to provide within the compass of a single volume an introduction to the major developments in this field that have taken place during the twentieth century in Europe and North America The authors explain the assumptions of these theories concerning the nature of literature and criticism showing how they relate to one another and linking them to the general issues raised by all critical practice In succeeding chapters the book considers individual theorists and schools focusing in turn on Russian Formalism modern linguistics post structuralism modern psychoanalytic criticism and Marxist theories For readers who wish to pursue further their study of particular theories selected bibliographies are provided at the end of each chapter From publisher s description
