Landscape and Branding Nicole Porter, 2015-10-05 Landscape and branding explores the way landscape is conceptualised conceived represented and designed by professionals in a brand driven age Landscape incorporating tangible physical space as well as intangible concepts narratives images and experiences of place is constructed by a number of creative industries This book tests the hypothesis that place branding a powerful marketing and management practice increasingly blurs the distinction between the promotion of landscape and its production in design terms Place branding involves the strategic and systematic composition of single minded experiential and market friendly place identities which are consistently communicated across various media including physical space How does this implicate or transform notions of place nature landscape experience and the qualitative value of landscape itself How does this affect the role of landscape architecture To answer these questions place branding theory and practice is critically examined alongside an in depth case study of one specific landscape the Blue Mountains Australia Projects undertaken between 1995 and 2015 including a branding strategy for the region media campaigns television cinema and several landscape architectural works in the public and private domain are comparatively analysed focusing on the discourse conventions and values informing their production and the landscape narratives they convey

Threshold to Valley Forge Sheilah D. Vance, 2025-02-28 Threshold to Valley Forge adds an important untold chapter to Pennsylvania s Revolutionary War history Through extensive research Vance illuminates how six days in Gulph Mills shaped the Continental Army s path to Valley Forge while highlighting the complex challenges faced by Pennsylvanians during this pivotal time The Honorable Robert P Casey Jr United States Senator for Pennsylvania When George Washington and the Continental Army marched into Gulph Mills in December 1777 they were uncheered by any recent triumph Washington s army had lost at Brandywine at Germantown and at Paoli and the British had captured Philadelphia the largest city in the American colonies Even worse the Continental Congress had recently visited the patriot camp in Whitemarsh to inspect Washington s work questioning if he was the right man to lead the Continental Army Members of the Continental Congress and local legislators pushed for one more battle with the British before going into winter quarters but the soldiers and generals were in no condition to engage the enemy The army was bruised famished and despondent At the same time the new nation was trying to secure its existence The states began debating whether to adopt the Articles of Confederation that the Continental Congress had passed in the previous month Benjamin Franklin and the members of the American Commission were in France lobbying the King Louis XVI and his government to officially support the United States From December 12 19 1777 Washington s Army encamped in the towering hills of Gulph Mills Pennsylvania fifteen miles from Philadelphia Known as the Threshold to Valley Forge the Gulph Mills Encampment is often forgotten or minimized falling as it did between the more famous military engagements of the Philadelphia Campaign and the well known experience of the army at Valley Forge Yet the Gulph Mills Encampment was a significant microcosm of the Revolutionary War It included encounters with the British and the local community little food clothing and shelter for the troops the celebration of the new nation s first Thanksgiving and tough decisions by Washington including his momentous decision to make Valley Forge the army s winter quarters Based largely on writings and documents from soldiers generals local residents the Continental Congress the British Army and others this book reveals the fascinating details of George Washington s and the Continental Army s last stand before and as they moved into winter quarters at Valley Forge
