IT'S NATIONAL DOUGHNUT DAY! WHY AREN'T WE POSTING? Hannah Hall ,2021-05-18 A Guide for Schools Who Use Social Media The Secret Reasons Why Teachers Are Not Using Web 2.0 Tools and What School Librarians Can Do about It Peggy Milam Creighton Ph.D.,2012-04-13 School librarians need a simple action plan for overcoming the barriers to adopting School Library 2 0 This book provides one and describes how fully integrating technology would dramatically benefit 21st century schools Web 2 0 and its associated tools have the power to substantially increase student achievement This book has two straightforward

primary purposes to detail the research based reasons classroom teachers fail to incorporate Web 2.0 tools into their instruction and collaboration with other educators and to provide actionable strategies to rectify these omissions. The Secret Reasons Why Teachers Are Not Using Web 2.0 Tools and What School Librarians Can Do about It provides authoritative definitions of Web 2.0, explains the types of Web 2.0 tools suited for use in educational settings, examines the research based reasons they are underutilized, and offers strategies for school librarians to model the use of technology enabled tools and for teaching others to do so. This book will benefit anyone wishing to effect a positive social change in improving student achievement. Practicing K-12 librarians and educators, K-12 school and district administrators, and researchers in the field of K-12 education. School Library Journal, 2010. Collaborating(,) Literature(,) and Composition. Frank Gaughan, Peter H. Khost, 2007. The disciplines of English and composition seem particularly prone to crisis driven proclamations: our kids don't read the great works or they don't read at all or they can't write. Crisis talk notwithstanding, educators are left to theorize and practice ways to teach reading and writing with intelligence, compassion, and integrity. However, it often seems that theoretical formulations do not sufficiently explain their practicable applications, and practicable discussions too rarely rise above the level of swapping recipes, sharing assignments that work well in one context but may not in another. Therefore, the editors of this volume submit this collection of essays that strives to harmonize the all too often discordant qualities of theory and practice. Each co-authored essay illustrates and analyzes various classroom based strategies for productive collaboration between literature and composition. This collection envisions a reciprocal to composing literature: literaturing composition, which entails living through literature as Louise Rosenblatt has it. This process regards the literary text as a medium for creative action, so that one reads not to criticize so much as to imagine new compositional possibilities. The eight essays in this collection are divided into four sections which span topics that include textuality and critical pedagogy, argumentation and hybrid genres, student engagement and popular culture, and materiality and assessment.
