cowboys Robert Longo's Men in Cities Faith Ringgold's Black Light and Laurie Simmons's dollhouses and moves fluidly from discussions of artists' works, art museums and galleries to cultural influences and significant historical events. Rather than arguing on nationalist grounds or viewing American culture as representative of a now devalued nation, Siegel explores how American culture dominated not only American artists but created conditions that now, after the full globalization of the art world, affect artists around the world. Since 45 will interest all readers engaged in post-war and contemporary art in the United States and beyond.
