Franz Boas Noga Arikha,2025-05-13 A thought provoking account of the life and work of Franz Boas and his influential role in shaping modern anthropology Franz Boas 1858 1942 is widely acknowledged for his pioneering work in the field of cultural anthropology His rigorous studies of variations across societies were aimed at demonstrating that cultures and peoples were not shaped by biological predispositions This book traces Boas s life and intellectual passions from his roots in Germany and his move to the United States in 1884 partly in response to growing antisemitism in Germany to his work with First Nations communities and his influential role as a teacher mentor and engaged activist who inspired an entire generation Drawing from Boas s numerous but rarely read writings Noga Arikha brings to life the man and the ideas he developed about the complex interplay of mind and culture biology and history language and myth She provides a comprehensive picture of the cultural contexts in which he worked of his personal and professional relationships and of his revolutionary approach to fieldwork He was celebrated in his lifetime for the cultural relativism he developed and the arguments he marshaled against entrenched racialism But his was a constant battle and Arikha shows how urgently relevant his voice and legacy have become again today

Afro-Nordic Landscapes Michael McEachrane,2014-04-24 Afro Nordic Landscapes Equality and Race in Northern Europe challenges a view of Nordic societies as homogenously white and as human rights champions that are so progressive that even the concept of race is deemed irrelevant to their societies The book places African Diasporas race and legacies of imperialism squarely in a Nordic context How has a nation as peripheral as Iceland been shaped by an identity of being white How do Black Norwegians challenge racially conscribed views of Norwegian nationhood What does the history of jazz in Denmark say about the relation between its national identity and race What is it like to be a mixed race black Swedish woman How have African Diasporans in Finland navigated issues of race and belonging And what does the widespread denial of everyday racism in Nordic societies mean to Afro Nordics This text is a must read for anyone interested in issues of race in the Nordic region and Europe writ large As Paul Gilroy writes in his foreword it is a book that should be studied with care and profit inside the Nordic countries and also outside them by the broader international readership that has been established around the study of racism and critical race theory
