

I. Read the following passage and answer the questions given below:

Aesop was born a slave and he served two masters. The second man gave him his freedom as appreciation of his wit and intelligence.

After he became a free man Aesop travelled a great deal instructing people through his fables and as the story goes learning about the world and its ways from it he wrote like The Owl and the Tortoise, The Fox and the Wolf, The Grasshopper and the Ant and The Flea and the Gnat are popular ones today.

He finally settled in Delphi, capital of Lydia, at the invitation of the ruler of the country, King Croesus, who was a great patron of learning and learned men. It was Croesus, however, who unwittingly sent him to his death. Croesus wanted someone trustworthy to go to Delphi with a large amount of gold which was to be distributed among the citizens there and he sent Aesop. The citizens of Delphi, however, were not satisfied with the amount of gold sent. They demanded more. Aesop, in despair, sent the gold back to his royal master. This enraged the people and they sent him and put him to death.

- How did Aesop get his freedom?
- What did Aesop do when he became a free man?
